we may well be filled with gloomy forebodings for the future. What may we expect except a line of conduct in keeping with what has been done? of conduct in keeping with what has been done it is this a contest to preserve the Union? If so, then it should be waged in a constitutional manner. Is the doctrine to obtain that provinces are to be entirely subordinate to the idea of political unity? Shall the rallying cry be the constitution and the Union, or are we orenered to say that the what sort of a Union would it be? Let this principle be announced, and let us enry on this principle be announced, and let us carry on this contest with this spirit, winking at or approving the violations of this sucred instrument, and the people will soon begin to inquire what will be people will soon begin to inquire what will become of our liberties at the end of the experiment?

The prognant question for us to decide is, whether the constitutions er the constitution is to be respected in this struggie, or whether we are called upon to follow the flag over the ruins of the constitution? I believe, hout questioning the motives of any, the whole tendency of the present proceedings is to estab-lish a government without limitations, and radically to change our frame and character of gov.

I was told, the other day, by a distinguished American, that many Americans abroard, when asked about the present condition of things here, said, "We thought your federal government rested on consent, and how do you propose to main-tain it by force?" Often the answer would be, filt was inlended to rest on consent, but it has failed. It is not strong enough, and we intend character of the government, and we will give it in estrength we deem essential without regard to the provisions of the constitution, which was made some eighty years ago, and has been found not fit for the present condition of affairs." I think it is well that the attention of the country should be called to the tendency of things. I know there are thoughtful, conservative menthousands of men love the constitution-scatter. ed through the adhering States, who would never consent to make this contest with any purpose to interfere with the personal rights of political communities. He then referred to a suggestion in a Northern paper that a change in the charac-ter of the government was contemplated, and also to a speech made by the present Secretary of War, in which he said the Southern States must be subdued, and, at the end of this contest, there would be no Virginians as such or Carolinians, but all Americans. I call on Senators to defend the constitutionality of these acts, or elso admit that they carry on this contest without regard to the constitution. I content myself in saying that it never was contemplated by the framers of the constitution, that this government should be maintained by military force, or by subjugating different political communities.

It was declared by Madison and by Hamilton himself, that there was no competency in the government thus to preserve it. Suppose the military subjugation is successful—suppose the army marches through Virginia and the Gulf States to New Orleans—then the war is prosecuted unconstitutionally. Even if there were war-rant of law for it, it would be the overthrow of the constitution. There is no warrant in the constitution to conduct the contest in that form onstitution to conduct the contest in that form. In further proof of how they intend to conduct this contest, I refer to the speech of the eloquent Senator from Oregon, (Mr. Baker,) when he declared he was for direct war, and said that for that purpose nobody was so good as a dictator. Is anything more necessary to show that, so far as that Senator is concerned, he proposed to condust the contest without regard to the constitu-tion? I heard no rebuke administered to the eminent Senator, but, on the contrary, I saw warm congratulations, and the Senator declared that, unless the people of these States were willing to obey the federal government, they must be reduced to the condition of Territories; and, he added, he would govern them by Governors from Massachusetts and Illinois. This was said seriously and afterwards repeated.

ously and anerwards repended.
Mr. Banga, (rep.) of Orogen, explained. He said he was delivering a speech against giving too much power to the President, and was keeping his usual constitutional, guarded position sgainst an increase of the standing army, and gave, as an excuse fer voting for the bill, the present state of public affairs. He did say he would take some risk of despotism, and repeated that he would risk a little to save all. He hoped the States would turn to their allegiance, but if they would not, he thought it better for civiliza-tion and humanity that they should be governed as Territories. He did say so then, and believed so now, and thought the events of the next six mouths would show that it would be better if the Senator believed it too. Mr. Breckingings said the answer of the Senator proved what he said, and contended that it was evident that the constitution was to be put aside. It was utterly subversive of the constitution and of public liberty to clothe any one with dictatorial powers. He then referred to the speech of Mr. Dixon, of Connecticut, who said, in substance, that if African slavery stood in the way,

Mr. Dixon, (rep.) of Coun., had the Senator Mr. Breckingings said it appeared to him that

Mr. Bingham, (rep.) of Mich., asked if he contended this was not a slaveholder's rebellion.

Mr. Brickinginge—I do, sir; I do. He then referred to the refusal of last session to make any compromise, though the Southern lenders said they would be satisfied with the Crittenden componing. But all efforts were refused and now promise. But all efforts were refused and now any offers of peace are ruled out of order in one House, and it is vain and idle to argue for it.—
He wanted to let the country know that Congress deliberately refused the last effort to avert the horrors of an internal struggle. But why utter words? I shall trouble the Senate no longer. I know that no argument or appeal will have any effect. I have cherished all my life an attach-ment to the Union of these States under the constitution of the United States, and I have always revered that instrument as one of the wisest of revered that instrument as one of the wisest of human works, but now it is put aside by the Exceutive of the United States, and those acts are about to be approved by the Senate, and I see proceedings inaugurated which, in my opinion, will lead to the utter subversion of the constitution and public liberty. It is vain to oppose it. I am aware that, in the present temper of Congress, one might as well oppose his uplifted hand to the descending waters of Niagara as to risk an appeal against these contemplated proceedings. The few of us left can only look with sadness on the melancholy drama being canceted before us. the melancholy drama being suncted before us. We can only hope that this flash of freezy may not assume the form of chronic madness, but that | Jonestown. Divine Providence may preserve for us and for posterity, out of the wreak of a broken Union, the priceless principles of constitutional liberty the priceless principles of constitutional liberty and self-government.

Mr. Lane, (rep.) of Indiana, said he wanted to know if the President had not saved the country by prompt action. He sanctioned all done, and the people sanctioned it; and he sanctioned all to be done when our victorious columns shall sweep treason from Old Virginia. The President had suspended the writ of habeas corpus, and he only regretted the corpus of Baltimore treason had not been suspended at the same time. Suppesse the Senator from Kentucky had been elected President, would he have refused to defend the capital when he found that armed rebellion was endeavoring to capture it? He believed not. He proceeded to allude to the selzure of telegraph-Re proceeded to allude to the selsure of telegraphic despatches, severely commented on as a usurpation of power by the Senator from Keitucky. That seizure would be necessary, perhaps, to implicate certain Senators on this floor. He had read this day in a paper that a certain Senator had telegraphed that President Lincoln's Congress would not be allowed to meet here on the 4th of July.

Mr. Bracking and a said hogsupposed the Senator alluded to him.

Mr. Lanz replied that hadded.

Mr. Basckingther replied that his personal relations with the Senator precluded him from believing that he would do anything of the kind; but he had to say that the statement that he sent such a dispute, was table particular. such a disputch was totally unfounded. He would not pretend to deny all the charges made against him in the papers. He will attempted it once but found the obsege reiterated in the same journal the second day after he had expressly desired. journal the second day after he had expressly de-nied it. He would say, however, now, that the statement that he had telegraphed Mr. Jefferson Pavis or written him that Kentucky would fur-nish him with 7,000 armed men, was, like other charges, totally false. And he had been inform-ed by the Governor of Kentucky, that the charge in respect to him was equally false.

There are matters and things transpiring around us which are really of great importance and which we lose sight of. There is at this time a Doctor Ludwig Hechinger, in Leb-anon, at the Eagle Hotel, who knows all about the human eyes. He treats them in a scientific manner, and all those parties who are excepted With sore eyes may call at once on him and he will give them perfect satisfaction.

The letter of our correspondent 'Frank" will be rend with interest. It gives a clear account of the State of affairs in Missouri.

We understand that our Town Couneil have under consideration the building, in various sections of town, of five or six ponderous tunks to hold a supply of water to be used in case of fire. We are certainly bad off for water for a fire, and the fact will not become sufficiently palpable to our citizens until the half of town is once destroyed just from the scarcity of water.

Adam Grittinger, Esq, of this borough, is announced in the Republican papers "as candidate for Associate Judge before the People's County Convention.

The Sheriff advertises to sell the following real estate on Monday, the 12th of Au. gust, next :- Property of Geo. W. Ryan, in Fredericksburg; property of Jacob Eshelman, in ditto; property of David Shucker, in Lebanon; property of Wm. Kirkpatrick, in ditto; property of Augustus F. Knocke, in ditto; property of Peter Gackley, in Heidelberg; property of Allison T. Dickinson, in Lebanon; property of William L. Black, in North Annville; property of George Wolf and Ludwig Zehring, in Union.

An hour in Annville last week showed to us that considerable enterprise is going on there. Five or six handsome new brick buildings are in the course of crection, among them a new church for the United Brethren.

We call the attention of the friends of education to the able report of Mr. Houck, relative to the Common Schools of this county. ERATUM.—Under the head of Moral Instruction, the word "morally" should be orally.

FIRE.—On Tuesday afternoon a staole and butcher shop, in this borough, belonging to Mr. George Meily and occupied by Mr. David Behny, took fire and were entirely consumed .-There was other combustible property in the immediate vicinity but the energy of the firemen prevented the flames from spreading. The property destroyed was insured in the Washington Insurance Company to the amount of $250 .-The stable was probably fired by some wicked incendiary.

The new Hook and Ladder company rendered valuable aid to the Fire companies in preventing the spreading of the fire. They used their apparatus and had the burning building leveled to the ground in a short time.

We understand that John Siegrist, Esq., of this borough, has been appointed Mail Agent on the Lebanon Valley and East Pennsylvania railroads, in place of George F. Weaver.

The Hauer property, at the corner of Walnut and Chestnut streets, Lebenon, ad. vertised to be sold on Saturday evening, was not sold.

For the Advertiser. Mr. Editor:—As the Republican papers pretty generally throughout the State declare that this is no time for party divisions, I suggest to those of this county the following plan. Let their County Committee be called together on a day certain, and so with that of the Democrats Let them together agree upon a Union Convention composed of such numbers of delegates from each township, as will fairly represent the votes Mr. Dixon, (rep.) of Coun., had the Sonator of the respective parties in such township according to the returns, say, of the last Governor's election. Then let each chairman call independ the most violent republicans had possession of the government, and referred to the bill introduced by Mr. Pomeroy to suppress the slaveholder's rebellion, and which also contained a provision for the abolition of slavery. The contained a provision for the abolition of slavery. a ticket to be supported unnumously by the peo-ple. At all events let the County Committees be called together on the same day, and strike out a better plan through committees or otherwise, if a better plan can be devised.

As the Republicans are largely in the majority, it strikes me they should take the initiative in this matter, if they are sincere in their no-party

THE LEBANON GUARDS, Capt. Ulrich's company, arrived on Sunday, at Harrisburg, their three months' enlistment having expired. When we went to press they were still at Camp Curtin, waiting to be paid off, after which they will return to Lebanon. The many rumors of their re-enlistment; of being drafted for the war; of only a portion coming home, &c., are all without foundation. If the emergencies of the case required it they could be detained in the service, but the probabilities are that they will be paid off and discharged, so that we may look for them probably not before Thursday.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator, in another column of our paper. It is seldom we take any notice of patent-medicines, but we cannot refrain from speaking of this Cordial, and do justice to the afflicted as well as ourselves. We have watched the progress of this Cordial since its first introduction to the public and we are satisfied that there is nothing in use for cleansing the system and renovating the blood, that can be compared with Prof. Wood's Cordial. Any one suffering from general debility, after using one bottle will see its beneficial effects. We have had a long acquaintance with the proprietor, and know him to be skilled in the science of medicine; and anything compounded by him the public can rely upon as being just what it is recommented. We would advise all sick or well to get a bottle. It is pleasant to the taste, and exhibitating to the system. But we refrain from further comments, as any one, after using one bottle, will be satisfied as to its effects. We take great pleasure in calling MESSAS. HOSTETTER & SMITH. Pittsburgh, Pa.:—Gents—As we are straugers, I herewith enclose you twenty-eight dollars for four dozon Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which please forward via Michigan Jouthern Railroad, Toledo, Obio, and Clayton Station. I have purchased several dozon bottles at Toledo this Summer, but the sale is on the increase so much that I wish to open a direct trade with you. I was induced to try your Bitters by my physician for the Liver Complaint, and received such insterial aid that I have recommended it to others and have sold about two dozen per week for some time. I have all kinds of medicine in my store, but there is none that I can so cheerfully and truthfully recommend as your Bitters, for I know they have helped me beyond my expectation.

Yours respectfully, PHILO WILSON.

BLOOD RENOVATOR

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhiliarating, and strengthening to the vital powers, It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to stores and renders the system invulnerable to act on the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act on perfect accordance with the lares of nature, and hence soulce the worlds adapted to a continuous and the rivintion. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by laseitude or depression of spirits—It is composed entirely of vegenables and those thoroughly combining powerful tanicand southing properties, and consequently can never injure. CLOCKS. Thirty Day, Eight Day, CLOUKS. Just Received at

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest stendy increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bettle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonie, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers gene-rally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrater STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the
