WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1861.

For the Advertiser. EDITOR OF ADVERTISER :- Please put forth the his peculiar fitness for the position, and at this juncture of our affairs merit will probably be rewarded instead of party services. UNION. CAPT. ULRICH'S Company of three-months' Volunteers from this place, returned to ship, commencing on the 19th of August. their homes on Thursday last. Our people turned out en masse to receive them, and the cheering that greeted them was of the tallest kind. Every man of them came back hale and hearty,with the exception of Lieut. John P. Ely, who received an appointment in the regular army not ls now on duty in the West. They appear ready and enpable for another ampaign, and many of them will no would re-enlist after a short bullThey performed their daty ably and faith-

We recorded the movements of Company G. as they progressed, but shall probably be canbled to lay before our readers in a few weeks a continuous history of their campaign.

The 12th Massachusetts Regiment, the Sickles' Brigade, and other bodies of soldiers passed through this place, last weak, for the seat of war. The Massachusetts Regiment is under command of Col. Fletcher Webster, the only son of the great Daniel Webster. We had a few moments conversation with him and found him a sociable, unassuming man. He bears no resemblance to his father, as we recollect the latter making his speech to the Young Men's National Convention at Baltimore in 1840. Col. Webster is apparently between 45 and 50 years of age, and looks just the man that soldiers would go through fire for. His staff is composed of about as good looking a set of men as we have seen in a body this long time-determined and bound to lead wherever the fight is thickest. The men, with scarcely an exception, look as though they would never weary following. They expressed great love for, and confidence in their officers .-Our citizens, at short notice, provided this regiment with cating and drinking, for which the of- WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION ficers and men expressed their heartiest thanks.

The Union Sabbath School of the Luthersh and Reformed Church of Annville, will hold a Harvest Home Celebration on the approaching Saturday, August 3d, in the grove of Mr. Dutweiler, about ½ of a mile from the Church in a southerly direction. The Washington Band will be present on the occasion to favor those who may be in attendence with some of their ochoice music.

Several Hucksters have applied and received permission to be present on the occasion. permission to be present on the occasion.

The first intimation we had that some of our Jonestown boys were prisoners in the hands of the Rebels, was from the following |-Che letter. As they are three months' mon and their time is now probably out the Government should speedily have them exchanged :-

JONESTOWN, July 26th, 1861.

Mr. EDITOR:—Remaining under the impression that you and your numerous readers do not know that our brave boys from Jonestown and vicinity have been captured and taken prisoners by the Robels, I will briefly endeavor to describe the occurrence:

occurrence:
This unfortunate circumstance happened near Martinsburg, Va., on the 2d of the present month.

Our men were out with the advance guard, on a scouting expedition when they came in contact with Rebel Cavalry, and these Secessionists being uniformed exactly like ours, as a matter of course, no animosity was entertained by our men, taking them to be U. S. Cavalry; and to indicate still farther the Rebels' inclination to entrap these volunteers, they even went so far as to open the bars of a fence for our men to pass through. No doubt our brave soldiers marched along with an easy gait, feeling "gay and happy." But alas! little did they know that they were caught in the trap until it was too lete! Their feelings and thoughts at this crisis might be better imag-ined than described as they stood surrounded on all sides by the Rebels.

We have accounts from reliable sources that they were tied to the horses' tails, and taken to wards Martinsburg in double quick time, at which place they halted and were furnished with food by some benevolent women—the latter being un-able to behold their half-starved and fatigued able to beloid their half-starved and intigued appearance without niding them. Further than this place nothing has been heard of them, but it is generally supposed that they have been conveyed to the Rebei headquarters.

Our men joined Capt. Hess' Company from Bellefont, Centre county, and belonged to the beliefont, Centre county, and belonged to the lost Regiment, P. V.—but previous to this they belonged to Capt. Faber's company of this place.

The following were taken prisoners, with the exception of the last four, who, as I now learn granaged to make their escape:—1st Sergeant, Augustus P. Rank; Privates, William Yeager, George Walters, Adam Sailor, D. S. Seibert, John Dubs, J. W. Carver, B. F. Seibert, Thomas Hughes, Anson Shuey, John Sarge.

The annual Sunday School Celebration at Cornwall will take place on Wednesday, the 7th of August.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement, in another column, of the Camden and Atlantic Bailroad, under the head of "See Bathing near Philadelphia." Nothing can be more delightful nor more healthful than a few weeks passed at the sea shore, and no sea-side resort that we know of is more attractive. Potatoes, B bus, than Atlantic City.

EQ. Prof. Wise left Lancaster for Washington on the 17th last,, with his War Balloon, newly constructed for governmental purposes, and a complete affair in every respect. It is made of raw Indian silk in top and bottom, and double thickness. The single envelope is made of compact Irish linen. The not work and cords are made of Italian flux thread, and rigged so as to be pecultarly adapted to topographical ascents. The hoops are of tough hickory, wrapped with linen and fish gipe in such a manner as to make them irresistibly strong, and yet as elastic as a steel spring. The car is made of strong willow and cane, with sheet i ron bottom to make it proof against rifle bullets.

Philadelphia,

Rev. Mr. McCarter, chaplain of the 14th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, under command of Gen. Patterson, returned to Lebanon on Saturday last. He left again on Monday, not having been mustered out of service. We had no conversation with Mr. McCarter, but learn, from those who had, that he expresses himself name of JACOB WEIDLE, Esq., of Lebanon, fully satisfied with the conduct of Gen. Patter. for ASSOCIATE JUDGE. No one will dispute | son; that it was impossible to attack Gen. Johnsan with a reasonable prospect of success, and that to have done so would have been a useless and ruinous sacrifice of lives.

We take great pleasure in calling They performed their duty ably and faithfully, and the censures that are east upon the 4th and 5th Regiments for returning just at the 1time they did are unjust and ill-advised. Soldiers oboy when ordered. These regiments were ordered to Harrisburg to be mustered out of service and they had to obey, even if the desire of every man had been to remain longer in service. Since the return home of Company G. they have given our citizens several specimens of their drill. It is quite different from the "parades" we have been accustomed to, and shows that soldiering in times of peace is quite a different affair from soldiering in times of war.

We noticed among the trophies of Company G.

THE GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM OF THE UNION.—Philadelphia possesses the most splenlid Clothing Emporium in the country. It is splendid as regards the palatial structure in which the immense business of the establishment is conducted, and it is qually splendid in respect to its great facilities and equally spinonial in respect to its great facilities and vast resources. But to its patrons its chief attractions are, first, the elegance of the garments for Gentlemen and Youths, manufactured there; secondly, the beauty aud-durability of the materials, and the superior excellence of the fit, and lastly the moderate prices at which the goods are sold. We refer, in this description, to none other than the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut Street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

EVERY SUMMER the demand for Hos-EVERY SUMMER the demand for Hostetter's Colebrated Stomach Ditters increases. It is found to be the only certain preservation of bodily strength during a period when the atmosphere is calculated to induce a feeling of lassitude and indigestion.—The worst cases of Diarrheca, and Dysentery give way to its potent inducace. Innumerable persons, who are now alive and well, must thank the discoverer of this preparation that they have not been swept away in the karvest of death. The Bitters is recommended by the best physicians in the land. This is the best evidence of its real value, because, as a general thing, they will not speak a word in favor, of advertised proparations. They have been compelled to acknowledge the claims of the Bitters upon the community. Sold by all druggists.

STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS, And Grows More and Mare Panular Every Day

And Grows More and almost without number might be given from halies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Buttle Greef, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.

Prof. Woop: Thee will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair, on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, at tended with an eruption on the head. A continual source of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in con cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodgres almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative, about the 1st of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions, and the bald spot is now covered with half thick and black, though short. It is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bettle would restore it entirely and permanently. I teel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thep if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the Scripture declaration—the reward is to those who are kind to the widow and the fatherless. Thy friend, SUSANNAI KRIBY.

Ligonier, Noble Co., Indiana, Feb. 5th, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of Now York, my hair, from a estise unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my lead shortly after became gray, so that you will, not be surpiised when I tell you that upon my roturn to the State, of Indiana, my more casual lave a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully yours,

A. M. LATTA,

BLOOD RENOVATOR Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilaring, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purify, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so us to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined us to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence southe the weakest shomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lussitude or depression of spirits—It is composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and southing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility: for it needs no medical skillor knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguanded system open to the most duncroons to

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blyzoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparaphysicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trum-peting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of un-alloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature. Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abundoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the morits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is ant to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, theu, is a necessity for a stimulant to recupe rate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrheea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against ising any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetten's Celebrated STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" lown on the side of the bottle, and stamped
