For the Advertiser. Mr. BRESLIN .--- In last week's Courier, a writer morrow morning, the 19th. Every confidence is felt here that Col. who signs binself "Squatter," and chaming to be a Douglus Democrat, charges Breckinridge with having gone to Richmond to join the rebels, and intimites that the Union of parties in this county is sumion with mon who approve of Breck-Mulligan will be able to hold Lexington until the reinforcements arrive. The Osage bridge, eleven miles east of here, on the Pacific Railroad, is said to be inridge's course. He, in the course of his article, would have the public believe him to be a hearty the first point threatened by Ben. McCulwould have the public believe him to be a hearty supporter of the government and yet in that very articles he endeavors to create distrust and enmity, by charging that there are persons in Lebanon county who follow the fortunes of such men as Breckinridge right or wrong. He knows his charge to be false; and for mere party purposes; in order to ensure the success of the Court House Clique, he would create feelings of hatred in the breast of our menule tuwards each other at a time loch's forces, which are now believed to be rapidly advancing from the Southwest. We have no definite intelligence from Lexington to-day. Dispatches were received here this afternoon from Booneville, breast of our people towards each other at a time when the administration needs the hearty, undivi saying that it was reported and currently ded support of all our loyal citizens. If there ever was a time in the history of our country when party spirit and its bitterness should be cast aside, believed that Lexington had been taken on Tuesday. Two gentlemen, who arrived here late and the whole people of the North go hand in hand in support of the government, it is now. Yet that man comhives at, if he does not advise, this evening, having left Booneville at seven o'clock this morning, entirely discredit the false charges that have been systematically made against individuals in this community, in order to gain his base ends; while the persons thus charged, by insinnations and otherwise, are better patriots than he and his tools are capable in the narrowness of their hearts, of being. There has been a united action on the part of a few men in this borough to create mistrust towards some persons by insinuating that they sympathize with the rebels, in the vain hope that party lines could again be drawn, by this means, and the success of again by drawn, by this means, and the success of the Court House Clique be again ensured. But these schemes must fail on account of the want of confidence on the part of the people in their tools, since such as are worth listening to would not st op, for any purpose whatever, to injure others by the use of mere fabrications, such as have been treithilly promulated for some some and the

by the use of mere informations, such as have been stenithily promalgated for some weeks past. What reason has "Squatter" to support his charges? What facts can he produce to show that there are disloyal persons in Lebanon county? Have not Democrate as well as Republicans gone cheerfully when country called? There is not an individual in Lebanon country when is not here is individual in Lebanon county who is not loyal to this government. And let me ask "Squatter" whether his course if successful would not have as great a tendency to weakon the administration, as that of Breckinridge if he joined the rebet army? Is it not the tendency of such efforts as "Squat-ters" to induce men to stand aloof in times like these, where they find their love of country mis-represented and themselves made the objects of given.

We have the most cheering accounts from every section of our county relative to the popularity of the Union movement and the prospects for the election of the Union ticket by a very large majority.
