The Advertiser: TERMS, - - - - $1 50 A YEAR LEBANON, PA. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1861. HOME AFFAIRS.

We notice among the late resignations in the Pennsylvania Reserves, the names of Capt. Jerome Myers, 1st Lieut. Levengood, and 2d Lieut. Van Stavoren. We are glad to find that the latter does not leave, the service, and trust the two former may not, as we have the best authority for stating that Capt. Myers crats from the Northern States, except California and Lieut, Levengood were among the best drill masters in the Reserves.

NEWSPAPER BLANKETS.-Our readers may remember the item which ran through the newspapers leveral months ago, to the effect that a newspaper laid between the bedclothes added greatly to the warmth of the covering. We intelligent persons inform us that it is really true and that a newspaper under the counterpain or under the jacket is really very effective in eloth.

The 98d Regiment, at camp Cole man paraded, on Monday, through the streets of our town, for the last time, previous to their de-Regimental Band and Martial Music.

Mr. William Focht, of this borough, bas gone into partnership with Franklin Walter, $8,40 per acre respectively. At the same county. See Advertisement.

The Lebanon County Regiment, Col. McCarter now encamped at Camp Coleman, near this place, expect to leave this (Wednesday) morning, at 10 o'clock. The destination is not definitely known, but the probabilities are that it will be either to Washington, Baltimore, or Annapolis. If the fatter place they will embark for some Southern Expedition, probably the reinforcement of Gen. Shorman, at Port Royal. So far as we known our people have had no cause to complain of the conduct of these soldiers encamped among us for upwards of two months. Their conduct has been uniformly orderly and gentlemanly. We also trust that the soldiers are satisfied with the treatment they received from our oltizens. Our people at least endeavorad to do their duty toward them, and if they failed in any particular it was not from any indisposition to do all that they could to make them comfortable. Many tears will be shed today, The parting in many cases will be heart rending. May a kind Providence watch over all. May he nerve the heasts and arms of those going forth to strike the enemy in such a way that a speedy peace may be the result, and return tham all safely to the loved ones they leave bebind them.
