THE CORNER.

A COSMOPOLITAN HIBERNIAN.

A Son of the Emerald Isle, but not himself green was taken up, (for he was at the time down,) near a rebel encampment, not far form Manassas Junction In a word, Pat was taking a quiet nap in the shade, and was roused from his slumber by a scouting party. He wore no special uniform of either party, and looked more like a spy than an allegator, and on this was arrested

"Who are you ! "What is your name!" and "Where are you from ?" Were the first questions put to him by the armed party.

Pat rubbed his eyes, scratched his head, and answered :

"Be me faith gintlemen, them is ugly questions to answer anyhow; and before I answer any o't hem, I'd be after axin ye by yer lave, the same thing."

him by the shoulder. -

"How is that," inquired Pat. "Are we not friends?"

"No," was the answer, "we belong to Gen. Beauregard's army."

"Then ye told me a lie, my boys," said Pat, "and thinking it might me so, I told ye another. And now, tell me the truth, and I'll tell the truth too."

"Well, we belong to the State of South Carolina."

"So do I," promptly responded Pat, "an' to all the other States of the country, too, an' there, I'm thinking I'll bate the whole ny ve. Do ve think I would come all the way from Ireland to belong to one State, when I had a right to belong to the whole uv 'em ?"

This logic was rather a stumper; but ; they took him up, as before said and carried him off for further examination.

A STRANCE STORY.

The following sounds very much like the stories of the Arabian Nights or Sinbad the Sailor, but as it comes from a respectable source, we give it for what it is worth :

: Astounding discovery in France.-It has been a great mystery to English bankers, and to the Directors of the Bank of England, how the bullion of the Bank of France could be so greatly increased within the last three years, while that instiution has been constantly sending gold to England, to Germany and America. Not long since the Bank of France drew some fifteen million francs in silver from the Bank of Fngland, which it paid for in gold bars with the French Mint stamp on them At its last report it showed a balance of one hundred and seventcen millions francs in gold, while the amount one year ago was under eighty millions-nearly one third increase. It was whispered that this abundance of gold is the result of a scien tific discovery, which the Emperor Napolean has secured the monopoly of Gold is at the present moment manufactured at Paris in a secret manner The principal articles used are lead and arsenic; and though it is not known how extensively the precious metal is produced, yet several hundred weight of the material are taken to a certain pla e on the first of each months. Everything is conducted with MERCHANT TAILORING.

gold is produced is beyond peradventure How long Napolean III will be able to keep this wonderful secret remains to be seen. Banker's Reporter, The above sounds rather fishy. Per-
