"Speak not a word when this you've read, Or in an instant you'll be deail Give as your money, which and rings, With other valuable things-Then quick, in silence, you depart, Or I, with knife, will cleave your heart "

frighted gentleman gave up his watch and money, and ran off. He soon gave the alarm, and the highwayman was arrested.

What have you to say for yourself? inquired the magistrate before whom the robber was arraigned. .That I am not guilty of robbery, though I took the watch and money.'

Thinking it might be something valuable, I politely asked him to read it for me .---He complied with my request, and presently-handed me his watch and purse, and ran off. I supposed the paper to be of great value to him, and that he thus liberally rewarded me for finding it. He gave me no time to return thanks, which act of Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, and
