ABOUT LYING.

The Rev. Dr. McLeod was proceeding from the manse of D— to church, to open a new worship. As he passed slowly and gravely through the crowd gathered about the doors an elderly man, with the peculiar kind of wig known in that district, bright, smooth and of a reddish brown, accosted him. "Doctor, if you please, I wish to speak to you." "Well, Duncan," says the venerable Doctor, "can ye not wait till after worship?" "No, Doctor, I must speak to you now, for it is a matter upon my conscience." "Oh, since it is a matter of conscience, tell me what it is; but be brief Duncan, for time presses." "The matter is this Doctor:-Ye see the clock yonder on the face of the new church. Well, there is no clock really there-nothing but the face of a clock. There is no truth in it, but only once in the twelve hours. Now, it is in my mind very wrong, and quite against my conscience that there should be a lie on the face of the house of the Lord." "Duncan, I will consider the point. But I am glad to see you looking so well; you are not young now; I remember you for many years; and what a fine head of hair you have still!" "Eh, Doctor, you are joking now; it is long since I have had any hair.' "Oh, Duncan, Duncan, are you going into the house of the Lord with a lie upon your head?" This settled the question; and the Doctor heard no more of the lie on the face of the clock.

The word daisy is said to mean "the eye of day," which is very poetical. But we suspect the legend has no other foundation than a preverted way of spelling the word-thus: day's-eye.

A judge and counsellor being upon indifferent terms, a client of the counsel's making his appearance at the bar with his haw terribly swelled, the judge remarked, "Mr. -, this client of yours would make an excellent counsellor-he is all jaw," which set the court in a roar of laughter against the counsellor. On silence being restored the counsel then remarked, "My lord, I think he would make a better judge, for his jaw is all on one

"I say, Mr. Pilot, ain't you going to start soon?" said a cockney on board a steamer lying too during a fog. "As soon as the fog clears up," replied the captain. "Well, it's starlight overhead now," said the cockney. "Oh! yes," replied the captain, "but we are not going that way."

THE LAW VINDICATED.

Judge D-was fond of card playing, and occasionally indulged in the amusement. During the period he occupied a seat on the bench, the Legislature of Georgia passed very stringent laws to prevent gambling, and made it imperative on the judges to charge the grand juries, at the opening of each session of the court. to present all who were known as gamblers, etc. The judge had conformed to the requirements of the law, but none were presented, and gambling seemed to flourish as ever it had. On an occasion when the judge was on his circuit, and after his usual charge to the grand jury, and, as usual, no notice taken of the charge, Judge D- ascertained there was a faro bank in successful operation in the very precincts of the court. The judge thought he would indulge his propensity GIN AS A REMEDIAL AGENT for play, and visited the bank. He played, and was very successful as was his wont; he won all the money, and broke up the establishment. After he had pocketed his winnings, and was about retiring, he perceived several of the grand jury in the room, who had likewise been engaged in the game, Judge D—— observed to them:

"Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, the law requires me to do all in my power to suppress the vice of gambling. I have charged. ed, and was very successful as was his

A WARNING TO YOUNG LADIES .- A young lady of California recently broke her neck while resisting the attempt of a young man to kiss her. This furnishes a learful warning to young ladies. We know from personal experience (in days gone by, alas!) how prone young ladies are to peril their precious necks by twisting away from a fellow at a time when, by a judicious exercise, or sit still and hold your head steady-ativeness, perfect happiness would have been shed abroad, and the ambient air made luxuriant with glory. Dear girls, hold your head steady, and don't break your darling necks.

COMMENDATIONS:

From Hon. Lewis D. Campell, M. C., Ohio.

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had ene which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraite, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patrenage of all who appreciate true art.

the attention and parrange of an extension and parrange of an extension for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors and the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to ensourage the beautiful art.

THE DESIGN OF THE SCHOOL IS to meet, as far as may be, the requirements of a progressive age. The course of study being so arranged and extended that pupils of any age or degree of advancement may be entered to nearly equal advantage, and embracing in its different departments those Branches of Education most useful or desirable in the different spheres of life. useful or desirance in the directed spiners of Ric.—
THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT designed mainly to impart a thorough, practical education, which may be turned to account in the transaction of business.—
THE CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT embracing the study of the Classics, ancient and modern, with a view to cultivate the taste—to refine and elevate the mind, or as a basis to the study of what are called the learned professions. A Normal or Teachers' Department, in which an experience of more than twelve years, in schools of various grades and in different sections of the Union, will be drawn upon in familiar lectures, illustration and example, to impart a knewledge of the Aet of teaching.

THE DISCIPLINE is gentle but firm. No unnecessary restraints are instituted for the sake of mere effect,—but such as are deemed conducive to the moral or mental welfare of the student will be rigidly enforced. Students from abroad can board, (unless otherwise desired) in the family of the principal. And over these a parental control will be exercised during their stay. They will not be allowed to be absent from the Institute at unseasonable hours; to visit averns or places of amusement without permission; or to be absent from their places in school on any pretext except selekness ex permission of parent or guardian.

THE LOCATION is pleasant, healthful and secluded; in a fourishing little village—surrounded by a picturesque and highly cultivated district. It is twenty miles Eastward of Harrisburg, and within view of the Lebanon Valley Railroad, which connects Harrisburg and roads between New York and "the West."

THE INSTITUTE is a spacious, three-story, Brick structure—planned and built expressly for a boarding school. The furniture of the school-rooms is nearly new, and of the kinds most approved for use and comfort. The students' rooms are large and convenient, and will be occupied generally by two students each.

Plinples, Pustides, Blotches, Bolls, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Oarland, Ind., 6th June, 1852.

J. C. Ayar & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to asknowledge what your Sarsparilla has done for melaving inherited a Scrofulous infection. I have suffered from it in various ways for yours. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms: sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and cars with one sore, which was painful and loathsoms beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Biessenger that you had prepared an atterative (Sarzaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. It sent to Chedmonatianal got it, and used it till it curred me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a mouth, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scale, which after a while fedt off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

I have cured many invaterate cases of Leucorthen by it, and some where the complaints was caused by ulceration of the ulcrus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge squals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous convent tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Symbilis and Movement Disease.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Aver, St., I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sursaparilla.

I have earlied with your Sursaparilla.

I have earlied with it in myspiratics, most of the complaints for which it is in myspiratics, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the enve of Ecvered and Movement Disease. One of my patients had Syphilike theres in his threat, which were consuming his pulse and the top of his month. Your, Sursaparilla, 32-adily taken, cared him in five weeks. Another was natacked by secondary symptoms in his mes, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would sam reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sursaparilla: the ulcers heated, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his mee. A woman who had been from this poisto in her hones. They had become so considerable points and hones. Since to was suffering fully your carsaparillation a low weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great romedy; consequently, these truly runarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

Independence, Preston Ca., Va., Ch July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayar, Sir, I have been efficied with a pointed chronic Rheematism for a long time, which buffed the skill of physiciaus, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies! could find, until I tried your Saraparilla. One bottle cared me in two-weeks, and rectored my general healths on much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afficied for years with an effection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a booken-down man for some years from no other cause than derengement of the Liver. My beloved paster, the Roy. Bir. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has enreal me, and has so parified my blood as to make a new men of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Caneer Tumors, Emlargement, Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Carles and Exfoliation of A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cares of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almaine, which the agents below named are pleased to formish grutis to all who call for them. Dyspensia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilep-sy, Metauchely, Neuralgia.

Coughs, Colds. Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Con-sumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the care of threat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its univalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of the effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the threat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
