

HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you going to school? Why, I'm going to LEBANON, in Market street, to the office of the Advertiser. Why, where are you going to school? Why, I'm going to LEBANON, in Market street, to the office of the Advertiser.

As the 93d Regiment will leave for the east of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest GABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHMAN'S. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHMAN. Lebanon, Nov. 20, 1881.

One of the Cornwall Anthracite Furnaces was started on the 19th ult., and the second will also go into operation in a few days. Enterprise never flags at Cornwall.

It may be interesting to those of our readers who contemplate visiting Harrisburg during the present session of the Legislature, to state that Senator Doughter is stopping at Corvett's, and Assemblyman Hoffor at Bucher's.

Mr. Roodel has for sale, at 10 cents a copy, Faxon Brown's Farewell Address in view of his imprisonment by the Rebels. It should be read by all our countrymen. All though addressed to the South, many in the North may see in his charges their own sins. The Address has a portrait of the Parson, and is intended for framing.

Mr. Roodel's book operation is a splendid success, he having sold a very large number of desirable books at his reduced prices. He sells dollar books at 40 cents; $1.50 books at 50 cents, and so on in proportion. He will keep at the supply.

John Allwein, Esq., assumed the duties of County Treasurer on Monday, in place of O. H. Borman, Esq., whose term has expired. He will make a good Treasurer. For the outgoing Treasurer we can only say, that he has invariably been attentive to his duties, and in his intercourse with those who had business with him, he was always kind and obliging.

It will be seen, in the letter of one of our correspondents, that the issuing of passes to privates and commissioned [he probably intended to say non-commissioned] officers in our army, for the purpose of going home, has been stopped. There are no doubt some great movements contemplated.

Lost, on New Year, in this borough, a Gold Breast Pin. One side has a Cameo and the other is intended for a likeness. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

PARDON OF SIMON GREEN.—We heard last evening for the first time of the pardon of Simon Green, convicted of murder in 1854, and sentenced to be hanged. Green was indicted for a murder committed during a drunken row at a shanty on the Lebanon Valley railroad, which was then being constructed.

The evidence upon which he was convicted was deemed very flimsy, and after discovered evidence was brought in an hour before his execution, which induced Gov. Pollock to grant a respite for an indefinite period. Efforts were made by a gentleman named Nichols, who took a deep interest in the matter, to induce Gov. Pecker to pardon him, but they proved unsuccessful. Gov. Curtin has at length rendered the man a simple act of justice, after a long imprisonment.—Harrisburg Patriot.

At an election held on Thursday evening, Dec. 26, 1881, by May-Flower Council, No. 59, of O. A. M., of Lebanon, Pa., the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term, viz: C. D. E. Miller, V. C.; Wm. C. Faber, R. S.; J. E. Miller, R. S.; J. E. Daugherty, F. S.; Geo. H. Karch, J. L.; Greenwald, Ex.; John Rodermeil, J. P.; John H. Knick, O. P.; Benj. Young.

At a late Sheriff's sale of Mr. Abm. Lehman's property, the following were the purchasers: John Wolf bought the Steam Mill for $1750.00, and had an interest in the building attached to it for $45. David S. Weger bought a house and lot in North Lebanon for $420.00. The mortgage on the property was $3200.00.

Capt. Mark's company of the 93d has sent home $1133.00 since their pay-day. Capt. Mark is spoken of in the highest terms by those from the camp. We always predicted that he would make a first-rate officer.

Mr. A. S. MERRILL'S article has been written and is ready for delivery gratis, by our druggists, to all who will for it. Our readers will be surprised to know that this little pamphlet which has become so much a favorite in our section has quite the largest circulation of any book in the world, except the Bible. It is a small, but a most useful work, containing many valuable suggestions as to the proper management of our own minds and bodies, and which may prove invaluable from being read in any one's leisure.

We visited Davis' great Panorama of the Rebellion on Monday night in the Town Hall. It is as represented, having been produced by artists one of the great works of art produced during the present century. It is the best thing, by starting men in the least contrivance, to seeing the actual battle of the great rebellion of America; many to the Indians; another section is devoted to the glorious campaign in Mexico; and others to the present war with the South. Life size portraits of the prominent men on both sides are also presented. There will be two more exhibitions in this place (Tuesday and Wednesday evenings), and a school exhibition this (Wednesday) evening.

The following are the officers elected by the Washington Mutual Fire Insurance Company, viz:—President, Joseph Bowman; J. Treasurer, Jacob-White; Secretary, J. H. Miller; Manager, Joseph Bowman; T. Jacob White; Thomas Fischer; O. Henry, Adolph Reineck; John L. Becker; John Wigger; Jr., Henry Fortin; D. E. Miller; John D. Kraus; Jacob Bombberger; W. C. Zauber; Wm. Shirk.

HUNNEWELL'S COUGH REMEDY excels in one of the most important characteristics of any remedy of containing no opiates or any other deleterious material to work counteraction. When by the perfect simplicity of its mode of action, it is so readily absorbed, and the exhibition of it in giving strength to weak systems, weakened by disease, a peculiarly very important often lost sight of. The Cough Remedy of the Universal Cough Remedy can be said a great success. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy, and is a perfect remedy. See advertisement and read carefully.

OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENCE. From the 93d Regiment.

CAMP MARY, FORB GOOD FORT, Dec. 27, 1881. Editor the Advertiser, in your Lebanon county home. With us the day passed off much as other days, except that we were tried on the manual of loading and firing, with the exception of the competition among the companies was rather sharp, and so was the firing, neither company being able to elude much advantage; and all done remarkably well.

Intimations had been thrown out in camp, last week already, that a few loads of boxes were being shipped for us from Lebanon, and expectations were high. On the 1st inst. a wagon was unloaded, and we were some long disappointed looking faces, but they soon brightened up again when told that there was 'another box' for us. The second load came on the 2nd inst. and with it, the first of the much needed furniture wagon with which we delivered our furniture and chairs sold by him, term of charge; those I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.
