HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture.

Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons. **

As the 98d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHERLINE's. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTRERLINE. Lebanon, Nov. 20, 1861.- 8mo.

We noticed last week the destruction by fire of the Steam Tannery of Mesers. Loos, at Myerstown. The stock house, containing some 200 cords of oak bark, the bark mill, engine and engine house, were burned to the greatd. Through great exertions, the vat and dressing house were saved. The estimated loss is $5000. Insured in Lycoming Company for $3,-000, West Branch, $1,500. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was no fire of any kind in the tannery when the hands left it. The engine was stopped and the fire put out at about 2 c'clock on Saturday, in order to clean the boilers on Monday morning. The fire was discovered in the bark mill.
