Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?
Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture.

Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACE sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very p lainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by bim, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.

As the 98d Regiment will leave for My the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHERLINE's. Any person in want' of good made work will please call on, him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHERLINE. Lebanon, Nov. 20, 1861.—6mo.

A protracted meeting is now being held at the United Brethren congregation. The people seem to take a great interest in these meetings, and I understand the conversions are numerous. I hope the good work may continue, though in this connection I can hardly refrain from quoting ne good old Biblical saying, "the harvest truly plenteous, but the laborers are few."

Sleighing is prime, and night and day there is one continual jingling of bells echoing o'er hill and dale. Now for parties and fun to drive dull time away, to the music of care despising bells, which linger in merry melody of these wintry hours. Let gallant coursers slide-fast young men pread yourselves and rosy cheeked fair ones, go it while you can, enjoying this snow carnival while it lasts, and may your leveliness and your hopes like the storm scenes which now surround us be braided in beauty and fringed with heart flakes of jubilant joy; yes, go it, to the tune of St. Valentine's day is past and gone. This day is so named after St. Valentine, a priest of Rome, martyred in the third century. In more favored climes than our own, on this day, birds are believed to mate, and young men and maidens are popularly supposed by the weak minded, to be nclined to follow the crnithological example. In this latitude this propensity usually takes the epistolary form, and sighing lovers approach their "dear ones" in all the glory of gilt-edged paper and other fanciful devices of love's heraldry. Others send ridiculous carricatures, with a few burlesqe verses below. These are paltry frivolities compared with the observances of St. Valentine in days of yore. Ridiculous letters were then unknown; and if letters of any kind were sent, they contained only a courteous profession of attachment from some young man to some young maiden, honied with a few compliments. But that hoary headed potentate-Time -has changed, and instead of receiving one we known throughout the country, will sing in are obliged, to satiate our wonted curiosity, to Eugen's Hall, on Tuesday and Wednesday even- lift dozens of these missives and burlesques .inge next. IMIS valuable preparation, freed of all the common components, such as Opiates, or Expectorants, which not only run down the system, but destroy all chance of cure, will be found on trial to possess the following properties, and to which the most valuable testimonials may be found in the pamphlets.

For whooping Cough, and as a Soothing, Syrup, it meets every want, and by early use will save the largest proportion of ruptures in children which can be traced to Whooping Cough.

In ordinary Coughs and Bronchial Complaints, the forerunners of Consumption, its splendid tenis properties make it not only the most perfect enemy to disease, but builds up and sustains the system against recurrence of the Complaint. No nursery should be without it, nor should parents fail to got a pamphlet, to be found with all dealers, as the only way to do justice to its value.

This great Neuralgic Remedy and Natural Opiate calls for special attention and interest, being free of Opium, or preparations of Opium, or of any but its strictly vegetable and medical properties. For Neuralgia, Rheamatism, Gout, Tooth and Ear Acho, Spinal Complaints, Bleeding at Lungs or Stomath, Rose or Hay Faver, Catarrh, and all minor Nervous Complaints. For Loss of Sleep, Chronic or Nervous Complaints. For Loss of Sleep, Chronic or Nervous Head Ache, Sick Head Ache, it has no equal, and to which we offer estimorials from undoubted sources.

For Delivium Tremens it is a Sure Romedy.

For Bowel Complaints, including Cholera Morbus, it is splendidly adapted, in not only removing the pains but acting as physic, a great contrast with Opium, which not only constipates and drugs the system, but makes the remedy worse than the disease.

From physicians we ask attention, and on demand Formulas or Trial Bottles will be sent, developing in the Anodyne an Opiate which has long been wanted, and in the Cough Remedy such as rest entirely on one central principle.
