During the Peninsular war an Irish regiment from Connaught became notorious for the unscrupulous manner in which they plundered the inhabitants of Portugal and Spain wherever the British army marched or encamped, but were also distinguished for their pluck. Wellington at last became so exasperated by their lawless conduct that he had the regiment paraded for the purpose of striking them with terror by having every tenth man shot. Before giving such a bloody order. however, he wished to state his reasons for it, and began to address the regiment thus: "You are thieves, robbers, cutthroats, vagabonds-everything but cowards." This compliment to their courage, although at the expense of every other virtue, so pleased the regiment that they at once gave three cheers with such a burst of enthusiasm as quite overwhelmed the Iron Duke, and looking at them a moment in silence, he turned his horse and rode away without saying another word.

A few weeks afterwards, in a battle on which the fate of the campaign depended, it became necessary to dislodge a large body of French troops from a strong position on an eminence, and the perilous job was entrusted to the Connaught regiment. On receiving the order to charge, they rushed up the hill in the face of a terrible fire, sprang like tigers on the foe, swept them across the high table land, and drove them down the declivity into the river Tagus. As they were hurling the heavy masses of the French down the hill, the manœuvres of the army brought Wellington near, and catching sight of him, the regiment yelled as with one voice. "What think ye of the Connaught boys now ?"-The duke replied by lifting his hat, and from that day he looked with grim leniency upon the foibles of a "Connaught boy."

Not long since, a steamboat called the "Old Kentuck" blew up, near the Trin. ity at the mouth of the Ohio, where it is a well established fact that a great many mosquitos will weigh a pound, by which accident a lady rejoicing in the name of Mrs. Jones, lost her husband and her trunk, and for both of which an action was brought.

There was, strange to say, great difficulty in proving that Mr. Jones had been on the boat, at the time of the collapse. that worthy having been notoriously drunk on the wharf-boat just as the steamer left Trinity. Many passengers were examined to prove the fact, until finally a Mr. Deitzmar, a German, was placed upon the stand.

The attorney for the boat elicited from Mr. Deitzmar this testimony: "Mr. Deitzmar, did you know the Old

A fellow having a spite at a sausage maker, rushed into his shop when crowded with customers, threw a large dead cat on the counter, and said, "That makes nineteen-we'll settle when your not so busy," and made his exit. He was, of course, soon followed by the sausage amatuers, empty handed.

A modern tourist calls the Niagara river "the pride of the rivers." The pride certainly has a tremendous fall.

Sleep is called "death's counterfeit." and this is a case in which the counterfeit is generally preferred to the genuine.

Reflective minds cannot be wholly idle. Even in play, they work on, in spite of themselves. Seasons of intermission often give rise to the best thoughts. OF A county editor, noticing the decease of a wealthy gentleman, observes:-"He has died regretted by a numerous circle of friends, and leaving a widow as disconsolate as any widow need be, who has obtained the uncontrolled possession of five thousand per annum. More than twenty young men have sent letters of condolence to her." A shop was broken open one night. but, strange to say, nothing was carried off. The proprietor was making his brag of it, at the same time expressing his surprise at losing nothing. "Not at all surprising," said his neighbor; "the robbers lighted a lamp, didn't they?" This valuable preparation, freed of all the common components, such as Opiates, or Expectorants, which not only run down the system, but destroy all chance of cure, will be found on trial to possess the following properties, and to which the most valuable testimonials may be found in the pumphlets.

For whooping Cough, and as a Scothing Syrup, it meets every want, and by early use will save the largest proportion of ruptures in children which can be traced to Whooping Cough.

In ordinary Coughs and Bronchial Complaints, the forerunners of Consumption, its splendid tonic properties make it not only the most perfect enemy to disease, but builds up and sustains the system against recurrence of the Complaint. No nursery should be without it, nor should parents fall to get a pamphlet, to be found with all dealers, as the only way to do justice to its value.

THIS great Neuralgie Romedy and Natural Opiate calls for special attention and interest, being free of Opium, or preparations of Opium, or of any but its stitctly vegetable and medical properties. For Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Cout, Tooth and Ear Ache, Spinal Complaints. Bleeding at Lungs or Stomach. Rose or Hay Fever, Catarrh, and all minor Nervous Complaints. For Loss of Sleep, Chronic or Nervous Head Ache, Sick Head Ache, it has no equal, and to which we offer estimonials from undoubted sources.

For Bowl Complaints, including Cholera Morbus, it is splendidly adapted, in not only removing the pains but acting as physic, agreat contrast with Opium, which not only constipates and drugs the system, but makes the remedy worse than the disease.

From physicians we sak attention, and on demand Formulas or Trial Bottles will be sent, developing in the Anodyne an Opiate which has long been wanted, and in the Cough Remedy such as rest entirely on one central principle.

From invalids we ask correspondence for Pamphlots

THE SPECIAL PLACE

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Malady, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of human ills. It saps the very springs of Life, rapidly undermines the constitution, and sinks the unhappy victim into imbecility and a premature grave! From one to six hoxes of the SPECIFIC PILL are generally sufficient to effect a permanent cure in the most aggravated cases, whether CONSTITUTIONAL, or arising from ABUSE or EXCESSES.

Orkhand, Illein Diseases.

O. Arek & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for melaving inherited a Scroulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Elvers on my latuls and arms: sometimes it burst out in theorem on my latuls and arms: sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it larke out of my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physiciaus, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grow worse. At hength I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsapatilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a menth, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scale, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has goofe from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be circ of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

New Obleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Aver: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent; and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have corred with the in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Feneral and Mercariol Disease. One of my patients had Symbilic elers in his threat, which were consuming his painte and the top of his month. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his mose, and the uliceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would sant reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your. Sarsaparilla: the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had become treated for the same disorder by merenry was seffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sententing pain in her bones. They had become so sententiate to the weather that on a damp day she suffered exeruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cared entirely by your. Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its fargula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation, from your informatory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it lave not supplied me.

Fraternally yours.

Rheumatism, Gont, Liver Complaint.

Dr. J. C. Arm: Sr. I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Intermatism for a long time, which buffed the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sursaparilla. One bottle cared me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that. I am far better than before I was stancked. I think it a wonderfor medicine. J. FREAM.

Inles Y. Getchell, of St. Lonis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which distroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve mo; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from me other cause than devagement of the Liver. My belowed pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sursaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the oblessing of tiod it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make an new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its univaled excellence for coughs, and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the cardla. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
