HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you gong to in such a hurry!

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street to buy a nice lot of Furniture. Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together !

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very p lainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.

As the 98d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is Journal: that of C. BROTHERLINE's. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHERLINE. Lebanon, Nov. 20, 1861.—6mo.

On Tuesday forenoon of last week, a shop and Summer House belonging to Jacob Albert, in East Hanover, was destroyed by fire. The buildings were nearly new, and insured in the Sinking Springs Company. The furniture was nearly all saved. The fire originated from ashes thrown at the side of one of the buildings.

Merchants and others of this county who have occasion to visit Philadelphia, will be pleased to learn that the old National Hotel (formerly White Swan,) in Race street, Philadelphia, the fifth of March, when fine Durham, has been taken by Mr. David C. Siegrist, of the Magle Hotel, of this place. He entered on the proprietorship this week. We do not doubt that | ding Chester county pigs. all Lebanon county folks visiting the city will hereafter be found at the National. Of the qualifications of Mr. Siegrist it is unnecessary to speak, as his long connexion with the Eagle Hotel of this place, and its popularity, is a sufficient assurance that he knows how to make his new were engaged at the siege and capplace a home to all visitors.

THE CONTINENTAL OLD FOLKS gave several of their old-fashioned Concerts in this place last week. On each occasion the Hall was crowded. It is a long time since our people have been favored with a Concert that gave such general satisfaction. Their music is of the old Lang Syne time, and so are their dresses. Mr. Gulick, by as clever a set of gentlemen as we over came across. They appear to be a happy family, and every one that has intercourse with them, is at once impressed favorably by them. The solos of Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Sheppard, are infinitely sweeter and more musical than any new-fashioned fandangoes we have listened to of late years. We learn that the Old Folks intend visiting a few more places in Pennsylvania, when they will start on a Western and Northern tour, reaching New York about July, from whence they intend to sail for California on the 15th of that month. The many friends they made in this place by their good music and unassuming manners wish them joy and success in their journey.

Capt. Shaeffer's Company, now recruiting mostly from this county, was mustered into the service a week ago. It is now at Camp Curtin. The officers are-Captain, H. S. Shaeffer; 1st Lieutenant, John H. The Pottstown Band, attached to the 53d Pennsylvania Regiment, was discharged from the service on the 18th ult., and the memhers have returned to their homes. The Band was discharged by its own request, and the reason given, was the refusal of some of the Compamy officers to contribute the amount agreed upon to make the pay of the musicians $30 a month.

The M. E. Church will hold its annual meeting in behalf of foreign missions on next Sabbath morning. The Pastor will give a brief history of the Missionary Society of the church throughout the world. In the afternoon the anniversary of the Sunday School Missionary Society will be held, commencing at 2½ o'clock. SCHOOL MATTERS. -- We condense the following decisions of the State Superintendent, from the official report given in the School Directors have the right to exclude children from the schools, when small pox or any other contageous disease is in the family.

Teachers must give their monthly reports to the Secretary of the School Board, and until this is done they should not receive their pay.

Twenty-five days in a month is the mest that Directors should require a teacher to keep school, as usual, I may at least derive consolation from and 20 days is the least that should be asked by the teacher.

A teacher has the right to oblige his pupils to declaim in scnool, but if they are by nature too timid to do so, he will not show much knowledge of his profession by ording them.

The following officers were elected by the Union Fire Company, on Monday evening, for the ensuing term of six months .-

President, Hon. John W. Killinger; Vice President, Wm. M. Breelin; Secretary, Adam McConnel; Assistant Secretary, John Matthes; Treasurer, C. Henry; Chief Captain, Lorenzo C. Shirk; Chief Director, Philip F. McCaully; Assistant Directors, Isaac Brandt, Win Cole-

LETTER FROM THE COUNTRY.

CORNWALL TP., March 3, 1862. MR. EDITOR :- Here I am seated in my old arm chair, in deep meditation over what has transpired since my last. Well, I must write some thing, anyhow, and if I cannot be as interesting The latter days of February, this year, were remarkable for high winds. Great damage in the way of unroofing buildings, blowing down fences, etc., was done in this neighborhood. To-morrow is Shrove Tuesday, better known in our vernacular, as "Fasnacht!" This day has been from early age celebrated throughout Christian Europe by feasting and merry making of such an extravagant nature, that I do not feel disposed to name them. Whim and folly were tolerated in their utmost extent, so that only there be nothing said or done to burlesque ecclesiastical dignitaries. In Germany the masman; Chief Engineers, John Matthes, John Concel, J. Henry Weaver; Janitor, Henry McCond; House Committee, Lorenzo C. Shirk, Wm.

Should the weather prove favorable the literatiof Cornwall will turn out en masse to attend a "debate" at the Onward School house, near the Horse shoe pike to morrow (Tuesday) evening, to which please consider yourself invited. If you desire to see tall specimens of equestrianship, you should come early and take a view of the arrivals as they approach. The question for discussion reads as follows:—"Should capital punishment be abolished?" That errors should stand uncorrected in a popular school-book, for years, and be sanctioned by ular school-book, for years, and be sanctioned by teachers, shows the great pecessity of more closely investigating our text books. I believe that honest criticism will not prove unprofitable, so long as quibbling is not resorted so. For the public good, I therefore, desire to refer to several spelling books now extensively used. Cobb's, for instance is full of the most classics. for instance, is full of the most glaring errors, and should be discarded from the school. It is true, the book contains many words and is cheap, and for these reasons is preferred by some. But why for the sake of a few cents teach children to soull incorrectly? If the friends of "Cobb" find fault with this compliment, let them say so, and I will make good my assertions. Next we come to "Sargent," This is certainly a good work, and of all the "spellers" I have yet seen, it is my some teachers "adhere to the book" with almost blind pertinacity, I will like-wise call attention to several errors in this book. The word "thraildom," on page 26, is spelt with one "I" only; "innuendo," p. 52, lacks one "p;" "terrific," p. 85, has two "ff's;" and on page 100, the words "mastic" and "sumac," are spelt differently on pages 84 and 114—both ways, how ever, are correct, yet this is not generally known I call attention to these errors to put "spellers" on their guard, as I have heard teachers order Making a total Union loss of 2,166. The repel loss in killed and wounded at 15.700. The prisoners is estimated at 15.700.

South Lebanon District, Feb. 28, 1862. Mr. Ebitor:—I assure you that we are yet alive and kicking for liberty and the Union, in our part of the country; but we don't get the news till they are old, and we generally don't like to be the last to hear of the Union victories. The Teachers' Association is yet going on very fine, and the teachers take a great interest in it, although it is near the end of the School term, although it is near the end of the School term, when it will come to a close. They try to make time as useful as possible. Evening schools are also beld during the whole term, and pupils take pride in them, and spectators come from different parts of the county. On the evening of the 26th, I witnessed one in the southern part of the District, when some of the South Cornwall Teachers came prety heavily located with Old Parthers arec, when some of the South Cornwait Teachers came pretty heavily loaded with Old Rye; they also had with them a darkey, who seemed to be ashamed of the company he was associated with. It was afterwards found out that their chief object was to raise a disturbance. We hope the Southern Cornwailers will keep their bully Teachers (as we may call them Embrane if not ers (as we may call them atthome; if not something else must be tried to stop them. The children come together to learn, and not to see such a nuisance. For a long time we had nice music from the merry sleighbells, but now the rain and the sun have spoiled that. A great number of children died lately in the southern part of the District. Twelve in the space of about 4 mile square. They were buried by twos and threes. But as the weather proves more favorable, health is better again. With these remarks I will come

The Atlantic Monthly for March resents an unusually striking table of contents. Mr. everett contributes an article on taxation, Mr. Whittie an exquisite little poem called " Mountain Pictures." Professor Agassiz another article on the Methods of Study in Natural History. The Autocrat gives us a poem on the Voyage of the Good Ship Union, and Birdofreedum Savin explains his conversion to Secession. Mr. Cleve-land gives a timely paper on the use of the rifle. The two stories, Agnes of Sorrento and the story of To-day, are continued, and there is a great variety of other art cles, making up a most entertaining number.

AP We have been shown a document signed by the Mayors in office of the ciries of the United States and Canada, certifying to the superior excellence of Dr. Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and to the value of all its remedies as articles of great public utility. Such avidence from such high sources bears us out triumphantly in the position we have long maintained with regard to Dr. Ayer's preparations, or more opposed than we are to the promulgation of quack ery in any sinape, but we tnew when we began, that his remedies—ere above any suspiction of deception—that they were about the best it is possible to produce for the cure of disease, and that they have the confidence of all communities where they are known. Not alone because the Mayors of the whole country velieve them useful to their neople, but because we know from experience that they are so to ours, do we know from experience that they are so to ours, do we consider in making their virtues known to them.—C.mrier, Princeton, Ky.
