HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you going to be such a hurry?

With I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACE sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very plainly he had always got by the the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furnisure and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.

As the 93d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET Prevention is Better than Cure. MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is

A regular meeting of the Agricultural Society will be held next Saturday. We learn that an amendment of the By Laws will be proposed, which is of considerable importance

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FRUIT.—It is the opinion of fruit-growers everywhere that this will be a plentiful fruit season. The buds of the fruit trees though full and healthy, are quite backward this season, and unless we have very late frosts, are likely to escape all danger from that source. For several years past the blossoms and young fruit have been killed by the frost, and the crop even of apples was quite meagre. This year promises to make up for past failures. Even the delicate peach trees are said to promise well, and a strong hope is entertained that we shall once more be favored with an abundance of that delicious fruit.

The 98d Regiment was encamped, on the 31st of March, at Newport News, Va., within sight of Fortress Monroe and the Monitor. Persons writing to members of the Regiment will please address as follows:-Name of person, letter of Company, number of Regiment, P. V., Gen. Peck's Brigade, Gen. Couche's Division, via Washington, D. C.

C., on the aftermono of Tuesday, the 25th ult., and marched to the whist at Washington, where the Birgade embarked, but owing to a want of transportation, the $35d did not embark before 12 o'clock next day. Our trip down the Potomac was pleasant and interesting, the weather being exceedingly fine; we had a passing look at Mount Vernon, the tomb of Washington, and some of the batteries lately vecaled by secseh. We passed Acquait Oresk and Cockpit Point Batteries at about 10 P. M. We arrived off Fortress Monroe on Thursday afternoon at 2 P. M., and anchored in Hampton Roads, until Friday afternoon, to await the arrival of the remaining Regiments of the Brigade, which we left at Alexandria.—While lying here, we saw the famous iros plated Monitor, lying in wait for the Merrimac, who could easily be seen, with a glass, down the James therefore the same of the Merrimac, who could easily be seen, with a glass, down the James the returned looks like a "cheese box mounted on a acceptance of the same of her turret looks like a "cheese box mounted on a

The town of Hampton presented the most desolate appearance imaginable, nothing remaining but the bare and Elsekened walls, as left by Gen. Magrader, who destroyed it last fall; he not only destroyed the village, but nearly all the farm houses. Our camp is situated on an extensive farm; the house is destroyed, having been burnt by the owner before leaving,
