Rebel armies are a humorous joke.

They are so racey. The best way for the rebels to resign is to re-sign the Constitution. Price is masterly in retreats. He does very well in the long run. The rebels burnt Columbus, of course What business had it to be a town. When Davis begins an offensive war he will be found at the off-end. The boil of rebellion has been punctur ed, and is rapidly running out.

The rebels are going to die in the last ditch, and are busly hunting for the ditch. Gen. Bushrod Johnson broke his parole of honor. He knew his word to be such trash it wasn't worth keeping.

Rebellion was once fashionable in Tennessee, and we notice that still its soldiers are "all the go."

Buell has not yet settled all the rebels, although he keeps a running account with The rebels thought to cut their way

When the Merrimac captured the Congress, it is a pity Sumner, Lovejoy & Co. had not been in it.

We see Lovejoy objected to Mr. Crittenden's making a statement. Lovejoy is niways objectionable.

The rebels thought to lay a ban upon the Union, but the Union will "Hang all our ban-ners, from the outward wall."

Our Generals are very persuasive with the rebels, as they have a pleasant way of getting around them.

THE SPECIAL PHACE

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR.

Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Malady, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of human ills. It sops the very springs of Life, rapidly undermines the constitution, and sinks the unhappy victim into imbecility and a premature grave! From one to six boxes of the SPECIFIC PILL are generally sufficient to effect a, permanent cure in the most aggravated cases, whether Constitutional, or arising from Abuse or Excesses.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

"We believe it to be, in the treatment of Spermator thea, as near a Specific as any modicine can be."—B. KEIR, M. D. [Am. Jour. of Medical Science.

"I have found them all that could be deckired. Their effect has been truly wondorful. I used them in case of Spermatorrhea of loty standing which has been under treatment for years. I think three boxes will complete the cure."—E. P. Dicker, M. D.
