Yorktown, and the other at Warwick. Magruder, holding a subordinate command, is with the reserves at Williamsburg.

Despite the weather and bad roads our Generals are pushing forward preperations for the assault of the rebel works, and not many days will will elapse before Yorktown will be ours and Richmond threatened.

Berdan's sharp-shooters give good accounts of themselves. They hold the advanced position under the rebel batteries, from which they constantly harrass the enemy. A head above the parapet becomes an instant mark for half a dozen rifles, which, from a thousand yards distance, rarely fail to hit their mark.

The Rebels keep well under cover. One sharpshooter attached to the California regiment, has almost wholly prevented the rebels from using a large gun in an important position.—From a well selected rifle pit, he keeps a constant aim upon the gun and hardly an attempt has been made for two days to fire it without the rebels losing one or more men from his deadly aim.

The task before Gen. McClellan, the reduction of fortified entrenchments is that for which he is held specially qualified, and the result is not doubted.

Re-appearance of the Dark Lantern!

Extra Judicial Oaths, Grips, Passwords, &c. ! !—Dark Conspiracy to Defraud the People ! ! !—A New Ring to Secure the Spoils of Office !—The Last Shift of Republicanism !—"Sam" Superseded by "Abe ! !"—Where Abe Lives and Travels ! ! !

It appears from the official documents which we publish below, that there are certain loyal individuals in Luzerne county whose loyalty to the Union is of so questionable a character that they are either ashamed or afraid to exhibit it in a public manner, but prefer the shades of night and the screen of secresy to brew and concoct their sinister machinations.—Accordingly they have formed a secret association in strict imitation of the "Know Nothing" organization, under the specious and sounding appellation of the "Luzerne County Loyal Union League," of which Mr. HOSEA CARPENTER is President. These "minions of the moon," desirous of uniting all the spoilsmen of the State into one grand corporation, with a monopoly of all the State, county and township offices, deputed their President, Mr. Hosea Carpenter, to Harrisburg, with authority to create and organize throughout the State, county councils, at five dollars apiece, subordinate to the State council, subsequently to be organized.

Mr. Hosea Carpenter, who understood his business, and who therefore knew where to find the best material for his purpose, went straight to Senator Ketcham, who, without hesitation, immediately caught Mr. E. W. Capron, Assistant Clerk of the House, who not only "understood the business of framing the constitution," but was also "entirely reliable in every respect."

Thus, in a short time, the constitution of "The Loyal Union of the State of Pennsylvania" was framed; Mr. CAPRON, the author, elected President of the "Legislative Loyal Union organization, and Mr. H. V. HALL Corresponding Secretary.—It further appears that, about that time the county council of Dauphin was organized by the election of DAVID MUMMA as President, and GEORGE BERGNER Corresponding Secretary. There is no doubt Mr. Carpenter is now traveling in the various counties of the Commonwealth to organize secret councils therein, and to levy his fee of five dollars.

Our space will not permit the publication of the whole of the constitution adopted by the parties concerned, a printed copy of which is in our hands. We give to the public such articles as are best calculated to lay bare the objects of the organization—

By Article VI. it will appear that it is intended to take a snap judgment upon the people by not revealing the ticket until the morning of the election.

Article VIII. binds the members of the association, who are under oath, to support the ticket formed by the Committee whether they like it or not.

Article XI. is an ingenious way of putting up the offices to the highest bidder, which will efficiently exclude the poor devils who have no money. A good chance for the shoddy and other contractors who have lined their purses.

Article X. excludes from office all persons outside of the ring!

Article XVII. teaches how to trap members into the league, and introduces "Abe."

Article XVIII., under the obligation of an oath, enjoins secresy and even falsehood!

For further particulars as to the residence and travels of "ABE" enquire of DAVID MUMMA or GEORGE BERGNER, P. M., Harrisburg.

If there were any evidence wanting of the desperation of the Republican party, this effort of their leaders to revamp and assume all the abominations of Know-Nothingism, long since repudiated by the sober second thought of the people, would prove the hopeless straits to which they are reduced. We feel assured that the bare exposure of this covert attempt to deceive and defraud the people, will blow up the conspirators and their dark lanterns sky high!

We the undersigned, Committee of Luzerne County Loyal Union League, hereby authorize our President, HOSEA CARPENTER, to organize a County Council of the League in every county in the State of Pennsylvania, and when he shall have so organized two-thirds of the counties of the Commonwealth, he is empowered to call a meeting of the Presidents of each County Council, to meet at Harrisburg, for the purpose of forming a State Council, by giving them ten days' notice of such meeting. A receipt signed by HOSEA CARPENTER for $5 for organizing a County Council will be deemed a sufficient voucher to admit the President to the first State meeting.

SCRANTON, March 4, 1862.

On my arrival at Harrisburg, I immediately called on Hon. W. W. Ketchum, Senator from Luzerne. On telling him my business he said he would introduce me to a gentleman in the House of Representatives who would understand the business of framing the Constitution, and was entirely reliable in every respect. He then introduced me to E. W. Capron, Assistant Clerk of the House, (and editor of Chester county TIMES, of West Chester Pa.) Mr. Capron immediately entered upon the work, and wrote out the articles of the Constitution, and prepared them for the printer.

Mr. Capron is now President of the Legislative Loyal Union Organization, and H. V. Hall, Esq., is Corresponding Secretary. Any information that may be required by Loyal men in any part of the State concerning the organization of the Legislative Council may be obtained by addressing the above named President or Secretary at Harrisburg during the session of Legislature. Any information relative to Dauphin county should be addressed to David Mumma, President, or George Bergner, Corresponding Secretary, at Harrisburg.

Any communication for me should be addressed to Harrisburg care of George Bergner, Esq., Post Master, and editor of the Harrisburg TELEGRAPH.

THE LOYAL UNION,
OF THE
STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA.
INSTITUTED 1862.

1862

ARTICLE VI. It is the duty of the seven committee to have a separate meeting as a committee, to nominate a ticket to be supported at the Borough and township elections and not to reveal the ticket until the morning of the election; the committee shall chose one of their number to represent their borough, ward or township in County Convention for the nomination of a County ticket to be supported at the general election.

ARTICLE VIII. It shall be the duty of every member to support the ticket nominated by the Committee or their representatives; no President, Secretary or committee, is to be nominated in the Order.

ARTICLE IX. Every subordinate Council shall make returns to the County Council on the first Saturday in each month, stating the number of brothers and the amount of contribution by each brother, with the name of the contributor. On the first Saturday of August of each year a full list shall be prepared by the County Council of all brothers who have contributed during the year, their names and the amount contributed, and the list thus prepared shall be sent to each subordinate Council in the county.

ARTICLE X. On the first Monday in August in each year a list of brothers who are candidates for the county offices, shall be sent to the Corresponding Secretary of the county, to be certified by the President, countersigned by the Secretary, stating that they are true and loyal bothers in good standing, and that they are worthy to hold the office which they desire to fill; and the Corresponding Secretary shall send a copy of said names and certificates to the subordinate Councils in the county.

ARTICLE XVII. In approaching a person who is known to be of the right stamp, the brother will first show him the declaration card and ask him how that suits him. If he replies that he endorses the sentiments, then present him the second card. If he is willing to pledge himself to that, ask him if he will keep confidentially and sacredly the secret of any names to the pledge or roll you may present to him for his signature, if he should not be willing to sign it. If he replies in the affirmative, the declaration may be presented for his signature; but he must not be informed where Abe lives and travels, before his name is signed to the declaration roll.

ARTICLE XVIII. No brother shall reveal the name of any member of the Council, nor its place of meeting; nor shall he reveal the fact that any such organization exists in any township, unless to a known brother; and no brother shall be allowed to communicate the pass word, unless it be the President of a Council, or in his absence, the Vice President; and if any brother shall reveal any private matters whatever, concerning the existence, workings are doings of any Council, his name shall forthwith be stricken from the roll of members, and notice of his treachery sent throughout all the Councils of the order.

Henry Clay's Method of Treating the Abolition Question.

An Interesting Document for the Crisis.

The following letter from Henry Clay was written to the Rev. Mr. Colton, one of Mr. Clay's warmest political and personal friends, and may be found in Colton's Life of Henry Clay. The letter speaks for itself:

ASHLAND, September 2, 1843.

"MY DEAR SIR:—Allow me to select a subject for one of your tracts, which, treated in your popular and condensed way, I think would be attended with great and good effect. I mean Abolition.

"It is manifest that the ultras of that party are extremely mischievous, and are hurrying on the country to fearful consequences. They are not to be conciliated by the Whigs. Engrossed with a single idea, they care for nothing else.

"And yet they would see the Administration of the Government precipitate the nation into absolute ruin before they would lend a helping hand to arrest its career.—They treat worse, denounce most, those who treat them best, who so far agree with them as to admit slavery to be an evil. Witness their conduct toward Mr. Briggs and Mr. Adams, in Massachusetts, and toward me.

"I will give you an outline of the manner in which I would handle it. Show the origin of slavery. Trace its introduction to the British Government. Show how it is disposed of by the Federal Constitution; that it is left exclusively to the States, except in regard to fugitives, direct taxes and representation. Show that the agitation of the question in the free States will first destroy all harmony, and finally lead to disunion, poverty and perpetual war, the extermination of the African race—ultimate military despotism.

"But the great aim and object of your tract should be to arouse the laboring classes of the free States against Abolition! Depict the consequences to them of immediate Abolition. The slaves, being free, would be dispersed throughout the Union; they would enter into competition with the free laborer—with the American, the Irish, the German—reduce his wages, be confounded with him, and affect his moral and social standing. And as the ultras go both for Abolition and Amalgamation, show that their object is to unite in marriage the laboring white man and black woman, to reduce the white laboring man to the despised and degraded condition of the black man.

"I would show their opposition to colonization. Show its humane, religious and patriotic aim. That they are those whom God has separated. Why do Abolitionists oppose Colonization? To keep and amalgamate together two races in violation of God's will, and keep the blacks here, that they may interfere with, degrade and debase the laboring whites!—Show that the British Government is cooperating with the Abolitionists for the purpose of dissolving the Union. I am perfectly satisfied that it will do great good. Let me hear from you on this subject.

"HENRY CLAY."

WHAT NEXT?—They are building a railroad under ground through the city of London. Deep down beneath gas-pipes and water-pipes and sewers, a large artery will in future drain the overflowing surface of that mighty city. The first portion of this great work, extending from Paddington to Victoria Station, will be opened by the first of May next. It will be so wide and well lit that it will seem more like a well kept street by night than subterranean passage. It passes right under Flint street ditch, the fullest and foulest of the London sewers.

HOME AFFAIRS.

☞ Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture.

Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons. **

As the 93d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHERLINE'S. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHERLINE.

Lebanon, Nov. 20, 1861.—6mo.

The Junior Union Hose Company will meet every Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock, in the Hall. It is desirable that the members should be regular in their attendance. It is especially desired that there be a full turn out next Thursday (to-morrow) evening, as business of importance will be transacted.

Mr. Solomon McCaully sold his Farm near this borough, containing 72 acres, last week, to John D. Krause, for $11,848.

The Commissioners propose building a bridge over the Little Swatara, on the road leading from Goshert's to Stine's. Proposals are invited in another column.

The Congregation of St. Mary's Catholic Church received their new bell last week. It is, we believe, the old one which was cracked some time since, recast, from which, however, it has quite a different tone. We miss the old bell. Its sound was familiar from childhood, and one of the associations of Lebanon that we grieve to lose.

The Martins made their appearance in this neighborhood on the 4th of April, a week later than last year.

A snow of about a foot in depth fell on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.—The warm sun immediately after compelled it to go into immediate liquidation, so that every vestige of it is now gone.

A fine Heifer, belonging to Joseph H. Uhler, was run over on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, last week, and injured so much that they were obliged to kill it.

We also learn that a man was run over, who escaped without injury. Reason, he was under a bridge.

DOGS.—The Tax Bill has passed the House of Representatives, with an amendment, among many others, laying a tax of one dollar upon every person owning a dog. If the Senate should retain the amendment, as we trust it will, the howling of worthless curs at night will in a great measure become of the nuisances that were.

SUICIDE.—On last Thursday morning, John Longnecker, a highly respected farmer, residing in Conewago township, Dauphin county, committed suicide by hanging himself. The deceased was in good circumstances, and led a pious life, observing family worship up till the morning of the melancholy occurrence, when he remarked to his wife, that "there was no use in me praying any more." He left the house after making the above remark, apparently in good health and spirits, and entered a new barn, where he committed the deed. No case is assigned for the rash act.

THE LUTHERAN GENERAL SYNOD.—This large and influential body, the meeting of which was postponed on account of our national difficulties, will convene in Lancaster on the first day of May next. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of delegates, and business of much importance will be transacted.

MORE COUNTERFEITS.—Spurious two dollar bills on the Munch Chunk Bank are in circulation. Vignette—farm scene, covered wagons, mules and negroes, cotton wagons, &c.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Mr. J. A. Light was to make his 38th balloon Ascension, at Mt. Etna, Berks county, on Monday afternoon, the 21st inst.

We learn that the dwelling house of Herman Light, on the Swatara, between Mt. Zion and Fredericksburg, was destroyed by fire on Monday night of last week. All the furniture in the building was also destroyed, and the family barely escaped with their lives. The origin of the fire is unknown. The property was insured in the Washington Insurance Company of this borough.

Mr. S. S. Ramsey is now in the city purchasing a new stock of Piece Goods, &c., for the Spring and Summer Trade.

C. Henry of the firm of Henry & Stine is in the city buying in a stock of Spring goods, which will be here towards the end of the week.

FIRE IN JONESTOWN.—On Friday night of last week a fire occurred in Jonestown, destroying the Hotel property of Henry Heilman, (occupied by Simon Heilman,) and the adjoining dwelling house of Lieut. Samuel R. Faber. The fire originated through accident in the summer kitchen, where they had been boiling soap during the day. Mr. Faber's property is insured in the Washington Insurance Company of this borough, and the furniture of Mr. Heilman in the Jonestown. The Hotel property was not insured. But a small quantity of the furniture in either building was saved. The Hotel will be rebuilt immediately.

POLITICAL PARTIES.

MR. EDITOR:—I am a Republican; there we differ. I am not an Abolitionist; there we agree. I am not a politician, and do not care a straw for the whole tribe. I shall have one vote at the next election, if alive; that one vote will not be given to any party having the least taint of abolitionism. I'll go a step further. Unless the Republican party distinctly, decidedly, unequivocally, and absolutely repudiate, discard, disavow and drop the nigger, now, hereafter, henceforth and forever, I'll drop them. Stick a pin there.

COUNTERFEITS.—We would advise our readers to positively refuse all two's on the Columbia Bank, and all one's on the Farmers' Bank of Reading. There are so many bogus notes of these denominations in circulation, and so well executed, that as a precautionary measure, it were best to refuse all.—Exchange paper.

☞ Carl Schurz is anxious to be a bold Brigadier General and will probably succeed. The N. Y. Staats Zeitung, which ought to know something of his capacity, intimates that it would be the worst appointment since the war began, and denounces Schurz as an ambitious demagogue with much conceit and little capacity.

QUITE LIKELY.—It is suggested that Cameron has made Bayard Taylor his Secretary of Legation because the latter has abused General McClellan so shamefully in his Tribune correspondence. The salary is only $1800, and Cameron has promised to add to it.

A MYSTERIOUS OCCURRENCE.—Mr. Daniel Brunner, Jr., a respectable citizen of Eagleville, Montgomery county, after visiting a young lady in Norristown, on Friday evening last, started on his return home; but when the carriage and horse reached the first toll-gate above Norristown, he was discovered to be missing. Search was at once made, and next morning his body was found in Stony creek, within the limits of the borough, bearing upon it the marks of having been foully dealt with. Mr. Brunner was in his 35th year.—What subsequent investigation of the melancholy circumstance were developed, we are not informed.

☞ A few evenings ago a traveler stopped at the farm house of Mr. Michael Garman, about three miles from Lebanon, and asked and obtained permission to stay over night. In the morning Mr. G. saw a rope suspended from a window of the room the stranger had occupied, and on investigation found the stranger missing and with him four beds and bedsteads. The scamp probably designs to go to housekeeping.

A CORRECTION.—In the Legislative Record of this State is published a statement from the State Treasurer, "showing the balance due the Commonwealth from various public officers as appears from the books in the State Treasurer's office, on the 21st of January, 1862," and among the delinquents is placed the name of Jos. Bowman, Esq., formerly Treasurer of this county, for $20.93. Mr. Bowman having settled his account and taken receipts in full, was naturally surprised to see his name in such a list, and wrote to the State Treasurer's office for an explanation, when he received the following reply:

STATE TREASURY OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, MARCH 26, 1862.

JOS. BOWMAN, Esq.,
Late Treasurer Leban'n Co.

My Dear Sir:

Through an oversight, you was reported as being in default on the books in this office, in February last, in the sum of $20.13. It occurred from a slight error in the books, which has now been corrected and your account is fully closed.

I am yours, very respectfully,
J. HOLCOMB, Book-Keeper.

☞ The Council of Lebanon met on last Thursday evening. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The Committee on Markets being not ready to report, asked time until next meeting, which was granted.

An order was drawn in favor of Wm. Bentz for $4 33; one in favor of Waltz & Roedel for $1 53; one in favor of Geo. Waltz for 93 cts; one in favor of Geo. Spang for $3 75; one in favor of Weimer & Brothers for $13 90 for putting bells on Perseverance Hose carriage; one in favor of Lebanon gas company for $29 97; one in favor of Henry Brandt's estate for $6 10 for plank; one in favor of Henry Brandt's estate for $5 66 for interest on bond; one in favor of Daniel Seifert for $18 00 for interest on bond; one in favor of Jacob Hauer for $11 10 for interest on bond.

On motion, Messrs. Fisher and Weimer were appointed a committee to examine into the condition of Pine street from the Quittapahilla to Chestnut street, and to report at next meeting.

On motion it was ordered that the pavements be required to be made from Strickler's mill to Owen Laubach's, on the west side of Market street.

On motion the pavements, on the east side of Market street, from the Quittapahilla to the railroad, were required to be made.

Mr. Weimer offered the following resolutions, and moved that they be made the special order for the next regular meeting:

Resolved, That the question of selling the Railroad stock held by the Borough of Lebanon, be submitted to the voters of Lebanon, at an election to be held on Saturday afternoon the — day of — between the hours of — o'clock and — o'clock.

Resolved, That the rate of taxes for the present year be — mills on the dollar, providing it be determined to sell the Railroad stock; if the stock be not sold, the rate of taxes shall be — mills on the dollar.

Resolved, That the election shall decide in favor of sale, it shall be with the understanding that the stock shall not be disposed of for less than — dollars per share; and that the sum realized from the stock, if sold, shall be used to redeem the bonds held against the Borough—and that those bonds shall be redeemed first whose holders propose the best terms to the Council.

On motion, the regular meeting nights were changed to the 1st and 3d Tuesday nights of every month.

On motion, adjourned.

Prevention is Better than Cure.

TO ladies of delicate health or impaired organization, or to those by whom an increase of family is from any reason objectionable, the undersigned would offer a prescription which is perfectly reliable and safe, and which has been prescribed in various parts of the old world for the past century. Although the article is very cheap and simple, yet it has been put up in half pint bottles and sold very extensively at the exhorbitant price of $5 per bottle, the unassigned proposes to furnish the recipe for the small sum of $1, by the possession of which every lady can supply herself with a perfect safeguard, at any drug store, for the trifling sum of 25 cents per year. Any physician or druggist will tell you it is perfectly harmless, and thousands of testimonials can be procured of its efficacy. Sent to any part of the world on receipt of $1, by addressing

The Philadelphia Market.

SATURDAY, April 12.

The Breadstuffs market has undergone but little change to-day. The export demand for Flour is limited. Sales of 1200 or 1500 bbls., including good Superfine at $5.25; Extras at $5.50, and Ohio Extra Family at $5.62½@5.75 ₰ bbl. There is a steady home consumptive demand at $5.12½ for low grade Superfine up to $6.75 for fancy lots as in quality. The receipts are small for the season, and the stock, especially Superfine, is very light.

Rye Flour is quiet and held at $3.25 ₰ barrel.

In Corn Meal there is no change and no sales have come under our notice.

The offerings of Wheat continue small, but the demand is very light. Sales of 1200 bushels good Pennsylvania and Western Red at $1.25@$1.26; 1200 bushels Southern do. at $1.30, and 800 bushels common Pennsylvania White at the same figure.

Rye is in fair request, and further sales of 1200 bushel Pennsylvania were made at 70c.

Corn is in active demand, chiefly for shipment. Sales of 15,000 bushels yellow at 55c., afloat, and small lots of Pennsylvania in store at 54@55½c.

Oats are without change. Sales of 2000 bushels prime Pennsylvania at 35c., in store.

Cloverseed is dull and selling in a small way at $5 ₰ 64 lbs. Timothy is out of season and nominal at $2@2.12½ ₰ bushel. Flaxseed commands $2.10@2.15.

Whisky is less firm. Sales of 500 bbls. Ohio at 24@25c., but buyers now refuse to pay over the former figure.

CATTLE MARKET.—The offerings and sales of Beef Cattle show in increase this week over last, reaching some 1,550 head at Phillips' yard, most of which were disposed of at previous quotations, ranging from $7@9 the 100 lbs., the latter extra quality. The demand was fair.

Cows and Calves are in steady demand, with sales of 125 at $15@30 each for Springers, and $20@37 for Cows and Calves.

Hogs. The arrivals were 2,660, being rather less than last week, and prices steady. Sales include 1,531 head at Imhoff's, at $5@5 75 for still, $5 50@6 25 for corn fed, and 1,120 at the Avenue yard, at $5 25@6 the 100 lbs. net.

Sheep. The receipts were about 3,600 head this week, all of which were taken at 5½@5¾ cents ₰ lb. gross, showing no change.
