HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street to buy a nice lot of Furniture. Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also soils a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.

As the 93d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHERLINE's. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHERLINE.

Your letter came to hand in due time, followed by the lox from the "Ladies' Sanitary Society of Lebanon." It was gratefully received, and is being faithfully applied to the wounded and sick brought from the late battle at litteburg Landing.

It would gladden your heart to see the immense number of boxes forwarded to this point, day after day, containing articles of every conceivable variety that can consibily be used in the way of relieving and making a midrable the unfortunate soldler. There are not less than 1500 sick and wounded here now, brought up from Pittsburg in the last lew days, and hundreds of others are on the way. As there are some Secash amongst the number, possibly some of your articles may be used by the latter class of persons: if so, there can be no objection, as it would be unchristian in the extreme to deuy, at any time, the hand of relief to even our worst enemies.
