HOME AFFAIRS.

Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture. Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than 'all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Vos John I think I our call that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs seld by him, free of charge; those I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.

The Junior Hose Company of borough had a very pleasant anniversity Thursday evening, the 15th inst. An instru address was delivered by S. T. McAdam, Esq., and the Union Cornet Band enlivened the proceedings with several pieces of their choice music. The Hall was appropriately decorated, and a number of mottos declaratory of the times and the opinions of the members were conspicuous on to turn the walls. May our young friends have many thrown o more anniversaries to celebrate.

The Committee appointed last week by our citizens to look after and attend to the wounded of the 93d Regiment, is attending to its duties. They have found however, by ecrrespondence with the Surgeon General, that he will not permit them to be removed, happeing responsible to the U. S. Government for them. Their friends, however, are allowed to visit them, and whatever they may wish to send them, to render their situation comfortable, will be received and delivered. The following are the names of those received at St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia: Benjamin Loucks, Henry Fishel, Henry G. Heldrick; Peter L. Fitterer, John Hutchinson, Samuel Shott, William Delaney, Daniel Shana-brook, William B. Ramsey, David Schnellrider, H. W. Fries. John Andrews.

We learn from a reliable source, that the wounded are doing well; that the wounds of Fitterer and Ramsey seem to be most serious, and that Shott is walking about the Wards.

Mr. John Heilman, H. S., of North Liebanon township had a line horse killed at the depot, in this borough, work before last. The horder as tied to a pale fence, and becoming frightened at the locomotive, reared and made a jump to go over the fence, but the strap with which he was tied brought him down on the fence, and the pales passed into his intestines .--As it was impossible for the poor suimal to recovery he was shot to put him out of his misery. The horse was worth $175.

A WRECK OF CARS.—On Saturday morning an extensive smash of empty cars took place on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, near Derry station, id Dauphin county. Three trains passed up close after each other, and at the place named the third train composed of empty coal cars ran into the one shead of it, not only smashing up the locomotive and some forty cars, but pliching them off the track and down a steep fifty-feet embankment. It seems that the train shead of the wrecked one had lost some of its cars by uncoupling, thus producing a loss of time, and the for being very heavy that morning, particularly in that neighborhood, occasioned the collision. The following day we went to the place to see sills and heavy iron rails broken and strewn head formost down the embankment, surrounded by cars in various stages of breakage-from slightly damaged up to smashed into smithereens. Some were bottom side up and others 'top side down, none being placed precisely in a desirable position for the gang of wreckers who were there speedily putting disordered things to rights, and picking up the broken material. Quit a crowd of men and woman from the neighborhood had gathered there to see; as also a dozen or two of volunteer superintendents from Lebanon, most of whom were more in the way of the workman than out of it. Mr. Peter Schwanger, the obliging and consequently popular landlord at Derry, prepared a dinner for the hungry-and such a dinner! The table groaned with the good and substantial things on it, and justice was done to the catables by the

MR. EDITOR:—Business having called me to Philadelphia last week, I put up at the Nutional Hotel in Race Street, between 3d and 4th., now kept by our former townsman Mr. David C. Seigrist, late of the Eagle Hotel of this Borough. This establishment since it is under his courge, seems to have become the regular rendezvous of our citizens visiting and sojourning in the city.
I met more than a dozen of them there. Their familiar faces gave it more the appearance of a Lebanon than a city Hotel.

EDITOR ADVERTISER: Since my last we have had quite exciting times; and trying ones, at that. We let our Camp at Warwick Court House on Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, going in the direction of Yorktown. After marching about 6 miles, we changed direction, turning to the left, and making for the road to Richmond, via Lee's Mills and Williamsburg.

At the former place we came to the second line of entrenchments, of which they had three, each extending across the whole peninsula. This was a strong position, and all military men agree that if they had made a stand here, it would have been almost impossible to dislodge them. But they had not done it, and so there was As the 93d Regiment will leave for nothing to do but to follow them up, and see where they are.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.,) May 7, 1862.

DEAR PARENTS :- I thank God that am to day in the land of the living, and have an opportunity of writing to the "smash up." About one hundred feet of the you. On the 5th inst., about noon, railroad track had been torn up; and some of the we received orders to march, allowing us only 5 or 10 minutes time to about in every direction. The locomotive was get ready. In about 15 minutes after we had received these orders we were in line and ready for anything that we might be called upon to do We marched until about dusk, when we put up for the night. We were very tired and hungry. After making ourselves a little coffee, we commenced making ourselves as comfortable as we could. Edmund, Theodore, and myself lay down to rest and were soon sound asleep. We did not awake until broad day-light next morning, when we found ourselves very wet, it having rained all night. At about 8 o'clock we were ordered to take up the line of march, following up the retreat of the enemy so as to give hungry superintendents. them no time to fortify. A dreadful instance of the danger of playing practical jokes occurred a few days since in orheod of St. Foy, France. It was a the peasantry there to give a new , about 12 o'clock on their wedisin of garlic soup, called tourrin their country. At the time in nuestion some foolish person put a quantity of laudanum into the mess, and the unhappy couple were next morning found dead in their bed .-

It is confidently stated that claims which have been made on a late English ship owning millionaire are on behalf of no fewer than thirty-eight illegitimate children!

CONGRESSMEN AND TORPEDOES.—A good joke occarred about Congressmen not long since. A Michigan Colonel was in command of the guard, at Yorktown. Citizens were prohibited admittance. Several came up and asked the corporal to pass them, saying that they were Congress-men. The corporal stated the case to the Colonel. "They are Congressmen, are they?" asked the Colonel. "So they say." "Well let them of their being blown to the devil, for that is the quickest way to end the war."

CURE FOR GANGRENE .- A correspondent of the Boston Journal communicates the following, which may be of service to our renders :-"In the year 1831, a small party of Americans, know that we are getting in a supply of provisions, which consist of Fresh Beef, Pilot Bread, Sugar, Coffee, and Salt.
