may become free from the usurped power of Jefferson Davis. I trust that there will be some movement for this purpose at Washington before the adjournment of Congress. But whether this shall be accomplished or not, I certainly can enter into no combination with Republicans to over the SOUTH; A HISTORY OF THE GREAT faults they may have committed in the past, the Democrats of the North are in the main loyal and patriotic; they are the chief bulwarks against the Northern disunionists; upon them rests, in a great degree, the hope of the Union.—
They have not only magnanimously foreborne from factions opposition to the Graven merit but They have not only magnanimously foreborns from factious opposition to the Government, but have even made no slight sacrifices of partizan feeling in its aupport. They have sustained the President when many of his professed partizans have assailed him; and, if, as I continue to hope and believe, he shall prove true to himself and to his country, he may, perhaps, find among them some of his best friends and firmest supporters. I have written somewhat at length, because, having no opportunity of personal consultation, it is only in this way that I can present to you, and through you to other friends in the city, the reasons of my course. My opinions and my feel. ting down the rebellion by force of arms. But I am for mercy, for humanity, for constitutional law and liberty; and I abhor the fanatical spirit that is liberate the degraded African would put the whites in chains, and condemn to misery and despair eight millions of people of our own race and blood. I know indeed that this atrocious scheme can never be accomplished; I know that the North would not support a war for this purpose; I know that the North would not support a war for this purpose; I know that the South would resist it, so long as the white race should survive; I know that all Chistendom would rise and forbid it. The end, reached at last, would be the dissolution of the Union, but after the most frightful expendithe Union, but after the most frightful expenditure of money and sacrifice of life.

I am confident, my dear sir, that after some experiments perhaps, you will at last reach the conclusion at which I have arrived. For myself, I see no use in meeting with gentlemen with whom I am sure beforehand to disagree. The whole basis of the proposed organization is wrong.
It wants the vital principle of a Union party, fidelity to the Constitution. It proposes a test that the Southern Union men will not admit. It embraces men who ought to be excluded, and exeludos those whose co-operation is essential. It is but the Republican party without the Republian name; and I fear its tendency may be to strengthen the radical branch of that party, and to weaken that portion which is best disposed to support the President in a conservative and con-atiutional policy.

If I am not mistaken, the Executive Committee of the "Constitutional Union party" of 1860 still survives and you and myself are both members of it. Indeed, I suppose that it is in that capacity your letter was addressed to me.* Be so good as to communicate my answer to the other gentlemen of the committee, as I supnose the question to which it relates may come before them; and believe me sincerely, your friend and servant, WILLIAM DUER. friend and servant, WILL E. J. Brown, Esq., New York.

*This invitation was addressed by Mr. Brown, whose mame was placed at the head of the Legislative Caurus Committee, to Mr. Duer, because he is not only a mem-ber of the present Constitutional Union Committee, but also because he is one of the Committee of the Syrac Union organization of 1861, which nominated the St ticket elected last year, and now holding office.

Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry? Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture. Weit, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes. John. I think I can tell that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cablust-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons.
