The Courier says the "ADVERTISER" is not quite so scurrilous (last) week as usual. We wish we could say the same thing of the Courier.

The Reading Railroad Company has contributed $25,000 to pay as bounty to volunteers, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has contributed $50,000 for the same purpose.

The "no-party" cry of the opposition is the sheerest humbug. At their late State Convention a resolution was passed endorsing Wilmot—the politician, white Cowan—the "no-party" man was given the cold shoulder.

We publish on this outside a letter from John Campbell, of Philadelphia, which will repay perusal. Campbell was for a long time an acceptable contributor to Forney's Press.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia News, (Republican) is trying to prove that Gen. McClellan is equal to the command of a large army, and that he is responsible for many disasters.

Indiana Democratic State Convention. Indianapolis, Ia., July 30. The Indiana Democratic State Convention assembled in Capital Square at 10 o'clock this morning.

If McClellan is in want of Generals, by making a draft upon Lebanon the want might be supplied.

The orders authorizing enlistment for 9 months expires on the 10th of August. After that date they will be taken in new regiments for three years or during the war.

The Editor of the Courier in an article last week headed "Got his dues," relates that a man in Ohio was sometimes ago expressing disloyal sentiments, when a Lieutenant of the army, passing, remarked that he was paid $120 a month for whipping such men and "turned in" and "wiped him out."

A doctor advertises in one of our exchanges for a "sure cure for a trifling expense." If he can invent something which will be sure cure for a big expense we would recommend this Administration to patronize him.

Prof. McCoy delivered his address in the "London Times," in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, to an immense audience.

The enemy had it all their own way for some time, as our troops were not anticipating an attack, but the thirty-two regiments stationed close to Col. Legally's headquarters soon silenced their guns.

Two Rebel Steamers in the James River—A Naval Engagement Impending. New York, Aug. 2.—The New York Times' army correspondent, in a letter dated the 31st, says:

The correspondent concludes as follows: "The position of our fleet is unchanged. The rebel rams are still off Turkey Bend. How near we are to a naval battle every one can judge for themselves."

A Connecticut paper of the 10th inst. tells the following graphic story: In New Hartford, on Monday evening at 6 o'clock, three boys went in bathing in the Farmington river above the dam of the Greenwood Co's mills.

Robbery Prepared to Dishonor.—An interesting case—A young woman twenty-two years of age, named Elizabeth Brown, otherwise Ann L. Williams, was brought up at Jefferson Market on Saturday on a charge of grand larceny.

The new postage stamps.—The designs for the postage stamps to be used as currency were adopted on Wednesday, and are now in the hands of the engraver.

Latest Foreign News.—The American Intervention Question in England.—The Australasian, which arrived at New York on Wednesday, brings us news from Europe on the 20th ult.

United States Hotel, Saratoga Springs, July 26, 1862. It is not true, as stated in your paper of this day, that I had lately made a speech in New York in which I proposed to get up a counter revolution at the North by heading a mob.

There is a certain class of Republicans who mistake their feelings of bitter unscrupulous partisanship and call it patriotism.

Waterloo, Va., Aug. 2.—Intelligence from Culpepper says that scouting parties go out daily and occasionally bring in rebel scouts.

An old farmer tells us that it is a singular fact that there are few or no crows now in the country hereabouts. They have all disappeared.

Half a million of the sons of the North have gone to that worse than Ganges crocodile that inhabits the rivers of the South, and now 300,000 more are demanded.

It is related that when the President came in from the Soldiers' Home last Friday morning he found at least one hundred persons waiting in the anti-room of his chamber in the Presidential mansion.

From General McClellan's Army.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, August 1, 1862.

About 12 o'clock last night the rebels opened from the opposite side of the river with two batteries of light artillery.

Their pieces were handled well, and fired with great rapidity. Four men were killed and some five or six wounded.

After they opened a few of the vessels were struck, but no serious damage was sustained by any of them.

DISLOYALTY IN MASSACHUSETTS.

At a meeting lately held by some abolitionists at Boston several of the speakers boldly avowed their hostility to the Union, resolved that it ought to be destroyed, pronounced it folly for young men to enlist, and abused the President in unmeasured terms.
