HORRIBLE TRAGEDY .- A Woman Murders Her Seven Children and then Cuts Her Own Throat.-The Quebec (C. E.) Chronicle, of the 22d inst. gives the following account of a terrible tragedy in that city :

We learned last night, from a gentleman from Arthabaskaville, that a shocking tragedy had occurred in the township of Sanford, about three miles from the station, some time yesterday morning .--A woman named M'dme Bourret, who has manifested symptoms of insanity years ago, and before her marriage, and whose husband is now in the United States, murdered her seven children, and then cut her own throat It appears that on Sunday night there was a veillee years ago, and before her marriage, and that on Sunday night there was a veillee oco. at ther house, and the thing must have occuffied between the departure of the guests and morning, for an early hour yesterday morning, M'dme Bourret's daughter, who had been at the veillee, but resided at Sf. Forbert, called at her mother's to see her.

Finding the door closed, she looked in through the window, and was then shocked to see eight corpses—those of her imother, her brothers and sisters. The eldest of the murdered children, a girl fourteen years of age, seems to have had a desperate struggle for her life, for the ed to see eight corpses-those of her a desperate struggle for her life, for the a desperate struggie for net met the true bodies of mother and daughter were lying close together, and the mother had seve-ral wounds on her arm, apparently in-Leb non, Nov. 9, 1559. F. H. EBUR. flicted by an ax, that was also close to the bodies. The daughter's throat and arm were cut, evidently with a razor, which the rigid fingers of the mother still tightly grasped when the tragedy was discoverby the surviving daughter. All the doors and windows were found barred on the inside, thus of course leading to the conclusion that the dreadful dead had been stantly ou hand a large stock of all kinds of ROOPING, committed by some one inside.

"A SINGULAR SPECULATION .- The Dayton Empire tells a good story about the petition introduced by the Reverend Mr Gurley into Congress for the expulsion of Vallandigham. The fellow who go up the petition, after getting twenty-five or thirty names on it, took it to be Mr. Vallandigham and offered it to him for $25, stating that he thought such a petition, with the names of Mr. V's most promibolinically. MAT Vallandignam, not feeling disposed to encourage such a mode of making money, ordered the fellow from the premises. He then went to work, got more names to it, and put it in the hands of the Reverend Gurley, of Bull Run notoriety.

057 A perverse inebriate, having fallen under the festive board at a disgraceful early hour, was strongly urged by his friends to get out and take the air. "Nerer !" he said, "a billion times never !"-But they nevertheless took him quietly up and set him out on the decr-stone .-"I'm out here," he said, by brute force.-That way I'm out here: but 'f yer think 'I'm going to take yer air, yer very much mistaken.

We believe it was Kingsley who said : "To be miserable, think about yourself-about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay to you, what people think of you-and then to you nothing will be pure. You will spoil everything you touch ; you will make sin and misery for yourself out of everything which God sends you; you will be as wretched as you choose on HAVE NOW OPENED THEIR LARGE AND VERY HANDSOME ASSORTMENT OF Challies; Striped, Plaid and Plain Mozambiques: Shep-herd Plaubis; Chall Delaines; Ponlard Popline, &c., &c. ne. It must be very hot in the South. A contemporary says that a small negro boy injudiciously leaned up against the . sunny side of a house and fell asleep In a few minutes he began to soften, and in three-quarters of an hour he ran all over the yard.

* What is the difference between a monetary panic and military one ! An swer.-One is a run on the banks, the other Banks on the run.

07 Mrs. Partington says that "nothing despises her so much as to see people profess to respect salvation go to church without their purses when a collection is to be taken."

057 If we lack the sagacity to discriminate nicely between our acquaintances and our friends, misfortune will readily do it for us.

An old negro on the Peninsula forcibly illustrated the rapidity of the rebel "skedadle" there. He said "You could see the lightning flash from their bootheels.'

French Periodical Drops FOR FEMALES. This valuable medicine is now offered to the Ameri-ean Ladies as the only sure, positive, and never-failing oure and regulator of suppression of nature, from whatever cause. Partlendar eare should be used to know that Pregnancy is not the cause, as the Drops would surely produce an effect entirely contrary to the course of nature, for which 1 will not hold ny-edf re-sponsable. These Drops are so mild and pleasant, that the feelblast can take them with perfect security, yet so powerful in their effects, that they may be sufely called a never failing Regulator.
