THE CORNER.

HOW GEN. W. T. SHERMAN GOVERNS MEMPHIS .- General Sherman had a conversation with a resident of Memphis a few days after he took command, in which he made use of the following language -Said he :- "Memphis is a conquered city. Were there any terms offered at the capitulation of the city ! None that I ever heard of. Very well; then the people are all prisoners of war. All this buying of cotton is going to be stopped. Memphis is not a trading post, it is a military post. Burn your cotton, if you want to. It's none of my business. Burn your whole city, if you wish. I don't want your houses. My soldiers can live in tents. We have got Memphis and are going to keep it. All this passing down South and carrying of mails is going to be stopped. I am going to have a cordon of pickets around this town, so near together that they can touch fingers. The provost marshal can have any guard he wants, from ten to ten thousand men. All he has to do is to ask for them. I don't care anything about the sentiment of the people. The people are nothing to me, except in their relations as prisoners of war. I would as soon send gunpowder South as gold. I don't want the cotton, but I do want the gold."

A good thing is told of Captain Gwynn A good thing is told of Captani Gwynn of the Tyler, who was sent up the Yazoo to look for the Arkansas. He disappear-ed on his errand, with his old wooden gun-UCINF LOTITIEUTIES, of all kinds, fresh and of the best quality, constant, on hard, and furnished at the lowest prices. The public is twitted to give me a trial. Leb non, Nov. 9, 1359. F. H. EDUR. boat, which is not strong enough to fight anything that carries guns, and the next that was seen of him he came tearing down around the point, with the Arkansas in his rear, putting balls through his and good assortment of all kinds of TIN WARE, and wooden stern at every shot. His sternchaser were blazing away manfully, with as little effect on the iron walls of his antagonist as could be imagined, and he ush- | stantly on hand a large stock of all kinds of BOOFING, ered the enemy in fine style. He said afterwards that he was like the man who was sent out from camp to procure game for breakfast. He went out to look for a rabbit and prairie chickens, and met a grizzly bear, who froze to his coat-tails and caused a precipitate retreat. Rush-ing back to camp with the bear in close ing back to camp with the bear in close proximity, he astonished his comrades by an uproariously sarcastic introduction,---"Here boys," he cried, as the grizzly bounded into camp, "I've fetched the game."

A PRISONER FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS .-Dublin papers announce the death of a person named Sterne, who had been imprisoned for debt in the Four Courts Marshalsea for 36 years. Mr. Sterne was a gentleman of large fortune, who, in consequence of some interest he had with government, obtained an official position in. it is understood, the commissariat .--He was a gentleman of fashion as well as a "fast" man upon town. In early life he had married, and had two children .---The most remarkable event of his life was his elopement with a married lady of great respectability, the wife of an eminent barrister. This lady, who was young, pretty, and well connected, formed a fatal attachment to Mr. Sterne, and yielded in an unhappy moment to his solicitations to elope with him. The matter was arranged at a ball given by the husband, at which Mr. Sterne was present as a guest. About 2 o'clock in the morning, while the festivities were at their height, the lady hastily put on her bonnet and shawl and proceeded downstairs unobserved. Mr. Sterne was awaiting her in a carriage. The news of the and SCANTLING. elopement, the circumstances under which took place, and the rank of the persons, created a great deal of interest in the city at the time. The injured husband instituted legal proceedings for damages, and the case came on for trial before Lord Norbury and a special jury. Mr. Phillips, one of the leading counsel of the day, stated the plaintiff's case. It subsequently transpired that, after inducing the unhappy lady to leave her husband and her home, he, within a short time, ruthlessly abandoned her and turned her out of doors. About the year 1824 he was arrested on account of a debt of about 3001. and was committed to the Four Courts Marshalsea. Bereft of resources, and discarded by all his connexions, it was impossible for him to procure the means to satisfy all his creditors. He was, however, allowed a sum of 10s. a week for several years by an eminent judge who pitied his situation. Mr. Sterne, or, as he was called in the prison, "General" Sterne, was in the latter part of his lile morose and reserved. It was exceedingly difficult to obtain from him any information regarding the events of his former life .--He seldow mixed with any of the other prisoners, remaining almost entirely in his own room.

We have just received a large stock of 3PRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING, and invite our Friends and Customers respectfully to call at BEIZENSTEIN BROS. Opposite the Court House.

ROBBING A BRIDE OF HER BED .- The St. Louis Democrat has the following ;

At Layer's boarding house, in this city, an unusually merry wedding came off on Thursday night, and the dance was prolonged till one o'clock in the morning .--The bride and groom then repaired to their apartment, but-horrible visusbed and bedding had been sacrilegiously stolen from the nuptial chamber ! Some vindictive wretch had gained felonious ingress at the rear, and effected a robbery unparalleled in the history of matrimony. It is conjectured that so fell vengeance could only have been devised and executed by some disappointed lover of the bride.

Lives there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said, The scamp who stole that bridal bed Deserves to live and die unwed, With maidens old to punch his head.

REMARKABLE .- An old man, with furrowed brow and silver locks, could be observed yesterday in the Democratic Convention taking a very active part in the proceedings. Notwithstanding his age, whenever his name was called by the Secretary he answered in stentorian tones. His bearing was dignified and his form erect. We allude to Mr. Corbit, of Lebanon, July 3, 1862. Hanover township. This is the fortysixth Convention he has been a delegate to in Dauphin county. He is now over eighty, as spright as many of our young men, and what is more, is a firm and consistent adherer to the principles of the good old Democratic party. In 1812-14 he went security for war tax to the amount of about $70,000, was totally ruined, and has been a poor man ever since. We hope he may be spared to attend many more Conventions.—Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

If a young woman's disposition is gun powder, the sparks should be kept away from her.
