THE CORNER.

PHYSICAL DISABILITY. There are, naturally enough, many inquiries as to the nature of the phys ical infirmities which will exempt members of the enrolled militia from the draft, or obtain their release in case they are drafted. The Surgeon General has recently, in a published order, stated who are subject to military duty, and his decision will doubtless guide the War Department in making up the new regulations. He says that physical disability should in all cases be established to the satisfaction of the enrolling officer by a affidavit of the party. He mentions the following imperfections as proper cause of disability: "Wounds of the head, which impair the faculties or cause convulsions; serious impairment of hearing, speech or vision; anchylosis, or active disease of any of Posters, the larger joints; the presence of pulmonary disease or organic disease of the heart; irreducible hernia; fistula in ano; large hemorrhoids; large and painful variscell or varicose veins Checks, which extend above the knee; the loss of a limb, or the thumb and forefinger on the right hand, or of any two fingers on either hand; the loss of the great toe; any marked physical imperfections which would unfit for active service."

TALKING TO CHILDREN. A clergyman in Maine was opposed to having any mirth in Sunday show Cards, Plain Cards, Handbills, Blanks and ment of the children. He offered to address the school and show that they could be well entertained seriously. I am credibly assured that the following dialogue ensued: "Children, I am going to tell you about Peter. Who knows who Pe ter was?"

No answer was made. "Cannot any one-those large girls -tell me who Peter was?"

Still no reply. "Can any little boy or girl in the school tell me who Peter was?" "I can," said a little fellow in the further corner. "Ah, that's a good boy. Now you come up on the platform by my side, and stand up in this chair, and tell | Briefs, those large girls who Peter was."

Jimmy did as he was bid, and in the shrill voice of childhood repeated: "Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater, Had a wife and couldn't keep her."

At this point he was stopped, but Double, not before the full point was taken by the school, and Mother Goose's poem appreciated.

An Expensive Har.-John J. A GOOD HIT.

The Louisville Democrat is reminded by the course of those abolition brawlers who are constantly preaching emancipating and its impracticable et ceteras, with all the ultra measures of black republicanism, and yet crying lustly for the Union and No Party, of the thief who entered the church to steal plate, and, being discovered, seized a book and sat down, very devoutly singing a hymn.

HESPECIAL PILL A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR

Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Maludy, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of human ills. It saps the very springs of Life, rapidly undermines the constitution, and sinks the unhappy victim into imbecility and a premature grave! From one to six boxes of the SPECIFIC PILL are generally sufficient to effect a permanent cure in the most aggravated cases, whether CONSTITUTIONAL, or arising from ABUSE OF EXCESSES.
