THE CORNER

The Royal Nuptials.

As the great wedding at the court of Queen Victoria—the wedding of the Princes of Wales with the Princess Alexandria—had been fixed for the 10th of March, public expectation in Europe at last advices was on tip-toe for the event. As the Prince, if he outlives his mother, will become the sovereign of Great Britain, and as he has already taken his seat in Parliament, his marraige becomes an occurrence of unusual interest to the occurrence of unusual interest to the sati world at large, for who can tell to what extent that marraige may not influence his future career as a sovereign, and his relations as such with the political aspect of continental-Europe?

The marriage of a Prince of Wales is, The marriage of a Prince of Wales is, besides this, a greater novelty than we might at first imagine. Only fourteen might at first imagine. Only fourteen persons, in British history, have worn NORTH LEBANON BOROUGH. this title, and of the entire number but five married while holding it, and but four married at home. There was, first, the renowned knight who won the triple plume and motto, Edward the Black Prince, who married Joan of Kent; second, Edward, the son of Henry VI., who at Amboise married Lady Anne Neville, the daughter of Kingmaker: third Prince Arthur, the son of Henry VII., who at fifteen years of age pledged his boyish this title, and of the entire number but fifteen years of age pledged his boyish vows to the unhappy Catherine of Arragon, afterwards the first of the many wives of his next brother Henry: fourth. Frederick, eldest son of George II, who at the age of twenty-nine married the Princess Augusta of Saxe Gotha in the Chapel Royal, St. James's : and fifth and last, the Prince Regent, alterwards Geo. IV., to the ill fated Caroline of Bruns-

The Disunion Shears Senator Benton once said with his usual force of statement : Truly, the Abolitionists and Nullifiers were necessary to each other—the two halves of a pair of shears, neither of which would cut until joined together. Then the map of the Union was in danger; for in their conjunction that map was cloth between the edges of the shears.

The Nullifiers of a former day have given place to Secessionists of the present, who have become much more formidable than their predecessors ever were So the Abolitionists of the past have been succeded by a faction a thousand fold more numerous and powerful than they. Now, more than ever before, it may be justly and with emphasis said, that the Abolitionist and Secessionists are as necessary to each other as the two markes one door above of a pair of shears. Without the other of cessary to each other as the two halves either would be utterly powerless for mischief. But joined together, as they mischief. But joined together, as they are now, with their two sharp edges in seeming opposition yet both working to sever the map of the Union asunder, they will. unless checked by a Democratic and will, unless checked by a Democratic and conservative force stronger than the two combined, effect their common purpose.

Between the two edges of the Abolition and Secession shears, apparently cutting at each other but really having the map of the Union between them, there is no escape from division, but in, disjointing escape from division, but in disjointing of all kinds, fresh and of the best quality, constantly on hind, and furnished at the lowest prices union shears—Eancaster Intelligencer.

ing had "run completely down." It had been led for many years by one of the deacons, whose voice and musical power had been gradually failing. One evening the clergyman gave out the hymn, which was in metrical measure rather harder than usual, and the deacon led off. Upon its conclusion the minister arose and said : --"Brother B----will please repeat the hymn, as I can not conscientiously pray after such singing !" The deacon very composedly pitched it to another tune, with a manifest improvement upon the first effort, and the elergyman proceeded with his prayer. Having finished, he took up a book to give the second hymn, when he was interrupted by the deacon gravely getting up and saying, in a voice audible to the whole congregation:

"Will Mr.—please make another prayer?" It will be impossible for me to sing alter such praying as that!"

A father came home from his busi- Saddle and Harness Manuness at early evening, and took his little girl upon his knee. After a few dove-

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines as safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Fills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer night have his wounds dressed immediately. If he would only supply himself with this matchiess Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his Knapsack and compressed with a bandkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Fills to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Senmen's Chost should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION I—Nome are genuine unless the words "Hollowax, New York and London," are discernible as a Walermark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing thom to be spurious.

INFALLIBLE LINIMBNI

GREAT REMEDY

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA LUMBAGO. STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his prac-tice for more than twenty years with the most aston-fshing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thou sands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fall.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE bree minutes and is warranted to it. TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOU DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the norvous tissues, it strengthen and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes xtremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely ap-dication of this Liniment will never fail to cure. SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and management of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUIES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, UL CERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFAL-LIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to direc-tions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECTS BITES AND STINGS.

Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c. Its soothing healing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonish u ent of all who have evere given it a trial.—Over one thousand certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest the fact.

To Horse Owners. TO HORSE OWNERS.

DR. SWELET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaced by any, and all in cases of Lamoness, arising from Sprains, Brufaseor Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Hingbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its fuithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the lorses to travel with comparative ease.

Every Horse Owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually pre-vent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable
