He saw, along a dilapidated fence, lying upon the ground, Beelzebub.

General Hooker now sont to the aid of General Howard the Second Division of the Third Corps, commanded by Major General Berry. Captain Best soon moved his batteries on a ridge running across the road, and after a short, but san-guinary contest, the further advance of the ena-BY WAS Staved.

General Pleasanton, too, succeeded in turning General Fleasantion, too, successful in data of back a dozen pieces taken from the flying corps, and planted them in a favorable position, while he drew up his little brigade of cavalry, consist-ing of squadrons of the 6th New York, 8th Penn-sylvania and 17th Pennsylvania, with drawn sasylvanta and 1/th Fonnsylvania, with drawn sa-bres, to protect the guns (a nevel sight in battle.) Directing the pieces to be doubled shotted with canister, he swept the position occupied by the enemy with a murderous fire. The successful theck of the advancing foe is in no small degree owing to the indomisable energy of this gallant soldier.
