Butchers shall pay ten dollars for each license.

Every person whose business it is to sell butch-Every person whose business it is to sell butcher is meat at retail shall be regarded as a butcher under this act; Provided, That no butcher. But ing taken out a license, and paid ten dollars therefor, shall be required to take out a license as retail dealer on account of selling other articless at the same store, stall or premises: Provided, further, That butchers who retail butchers meat is clusively from a cart or wagon, by themselves only for each license, any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding; and having taken the contrary notwithstanding; and having taken out a license-therefor, shall not be required to take out a license as a pediar for vetailing dutch. er's meat, as aforesnid; And, provided, further, That no license shall be required of a butcher whose annual sales do not exceed a thousand

Ignorant, superstitious and fanati-Ignorant, superstitious and fanatical persons are more to be pitted than censured, because their faults are more owing, in many instances, to their teachers, than to themselves; yet that they should want the good sense and judgment to distinguish between good and svil teaching is not very credstable to this enlightened age and country. We recently heard that an Abplitionist in South Lebanon should have said that he "did not believe that Democrats would,go to heaven." A man that holds such a be life and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of the victure.

Throughout every town, and almost every benefic of the American States, its wonderful cures of pullinously complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them seems townerful antidets yet known to man for the formit dislicated and dangerous diseases of the threat and lingua. While it is the most powerful antidets yet known to man for the formit dislicant dangerous diseases of the pillinousary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be samployed for Infants and young persons. Farents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions if prevents than those it cures. Keep it. by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung distriers, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toll to produce it the mest perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furtish for their oure. PREPARED BY DR. J. C.
