Negro Equality in Canada.

That portion of Canada bordering on the Detroit river, where gentlemen of African descent from the "neighboring republic" first do land and most do congregate, is a perfect paradise for the negro. At the recent Kent Assizes, held at Chat. ham, a scene occurred. The Planet thus describes :

Upon the case being called, Mr. Thomas Russell rose in the jury-box and said that one of the jurors chosen was a colored man, and the eleven white men had agreed that they would not sit with him. He said this in behalf of the jury, but out of no contempt for the court, but simply stated the fact and begged to be relieved.

Judge Richards-1 know no reason why you should not in the eyes of the law act as juryman as you have been chosen.

Mr. Russell-We do not think he is intelligent enough to act.

Judge Richards But the law says he  $\begin{pmatrix} 0. & Weigley, \\ R. & Dewalt. \end{pmatrix}$ is, and that is sufficient. The law is the judge in this matter, and not the jury. Mr. Russell-Well, then, sir, I must respecially decline to sit as a juryman with this colored man Judge Richards-Well, then, I shall fine you.

Mr. Russell-And If I do not pay the fine ?

Judge Richards-1 shall send you down below (to goal.)

Mr. Russell-Well. (Here Mr. Russell left the jury box )

Judge Richards-Mr. Clerk, what is that man's name leaving the box ? The Clerk-Mr. Thomas Russell, my lord. Judge Richards-Well, then, record fine of five pounds against Mr. Thomas Russell. Mr. Sargeson Varrall, standing in his place in the jury box-My lord, 1 am not North Lebanon Steam Grist Mill able to pay a fine of five pounds, but really I cannot sit here, but go to the cells.

(Here Mr. Varrall left the jury box.) Judge Richards—Mr. Clerk, what is the name of that man who is now leaving at their STEAM MILL, on the Union the jury-box ! The Clerk-Mr. Sargeson Varrall, my lord. Judge Richards-Record a fine of five pounds against him, too. (A pause) Call some more jurors to fill up the places of those who have left the box. The Clerk then proceeded to call the names of Mr. Hugh Palmer, of Oxford, and McPherson, of Bothwell, who took the vacated seats and were sworn in as jurymen in the room of Mr. Russell and Mr. Varrall, who refused to sit.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or est-ing and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus dis-turbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. The organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Fills, taken according to the printed-instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and geod appecite: For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his prac-tice for more than twenty years with the most aston-leting success.
