The enrolling officer of Salisbury District, Maryland, was very active and thorough in the performance of his duty. One day he went to the house of a countryman, and finding none of the male members of the family at home, made inquiry of an old woman, the number and age of the "males" of the family. After naming several the old lady stopped several the old lady stopped.

"Is there no one else!" asked the of 'No ! replied the woman, none except

Billy Bray.'

Billy Bray! Where is he?" 'He was at the barn a moment ago,' said the old lady. Out went the officer but could not see the man. Coming back, the worthy of Butter, Eggs, Cheese, Tallow, Lard, ficer questioned the old lady as to the age of Billy and went away, after enrolling his name among those to be drafted .-Time of the drafting came, and those on whom the lot fell was Billy Bray. No one knew him. Where did he live?-The officer who enrolled him was called on to produce him; and, lo behold, Billy Bray was a Jackass! and stands now on the list of draffed men as forming one of the quota of Maryland.

A Good Camp Story.—A correspondent of a Philadelphia paper, attached to the army of the Potomac, writes the following:

To show you how numers will spread in the army, I will illustrate an incident.

The lady friends of our fifth corporal sent him to box; among the many good things in the said-box was a life-size doll. Gress in the said-box was a life-size doll. in the said box was a life size doll, dressed in full Zouave uniform, which they won at a soldiers' fair in your city. The corporal, after getting the box, was taken sick; the boys started the rumor that the corporal was a woman, and gave birth to a boy. The rumor spread like wild-fire; hundreds flocked to our quarters to see the wonderful phenomenon-a new born babe-but we guarded the tent with zealous care, only allowing pryers to catch a passing glimpse of the supposed mother and babe. We could get a number of men to sware they had seen both. But the cream of the joke was to come off; the corporal received a ten days' furlough: all thought it was the mother going home with her babe - some had it, that she was a rich heiress escaping from a tyrant father; but hundreds believed in the mother corporal and young recruit of Company I, of the Zouaves d'Afrique

The Chuckleheads!—A contespondent suggests that those who call Democrats Copperheads are very properly entitled to the sobriquet of "Chuckleheads," from their blunders and imbecility in the ecution of the war. The Copperead may be a very venomous animal. but the Chuckle head, by his ignorance and pretension, would sacrifice an army, a country and a Government, rather than give up a theory which time and experience had demonstrated to be false and ruinous. - Cincinnati Enquirer.

Cool.-By a steamboat explosion on a Western river, a passenger was thrown unhurt into the water, and at once busily unhurt into the water, and at once busily struck, out, for the shore blowing like a porpoise the while. He reached the bank almost exhausted, and was caught by a [Lebanon, March 19, 1862.] bystander and drawn out panting. Well, old fellow, said this friend, you
