The borses attached to Henry Fortba's Miller's wagon took a notion to run off on Tuesday morning, in Chestnut Street, west of Plank Road. Before:getting very far they fetch off pragainst the Christic Robes. One of the hor-ses was run out of the barness and the other upset, thus putting a stop to their further progress. The damage appeared to be trifling to both horses and wagon.

The attention of those having Licenses to pay is directed to the notice of Mr: All-wein, County Treasurer.

A roaring Lyon from Berks county visited Shaefferstown, last week; spying ont the conversation of demoerats and threatening, to take some of them along with him in his carriage. The place at last got too hot for thim sad he left in a burry with wfles: in his car.

Ter-Centenary Jubilee, in First Re-mmed Church-A MOST INTERESTING OCCASION .-We are free to confess, that we have never been present on an occasion of more thrilling interest, than the Jubilee services, held in the First Rethan the Jubilee services held in the Airst Re-formed Church in this place, on last: Sabbath.... The Church edified though beautiful without a-elorging, was rendered additionally attractive, for-the occasion, by the rich decorations of choice flowers, and wreaths, and festoons, prepared from nature's exhaberant and charming stores.

The Democratic State, Convention will meet at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, June 17, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Judge, of the Supreme Court, to be supported by the friends of the Constitution by the choir, Sabbath School and congregation, and Union, and to give expression to the support by the choir, Sabbath School and congregation, under the leadership of Connan Mark, Esq., and the unsurpassed organ accompaniment of Dr. B., F. Schnöck, was a most rare-treat, and in the highest degree satisfactory. The school repeated most beautifully in concert, the Ten fullevergreen we have for wreaths. The fostcoor-ing was tastefully arranged, the walls being white and the church free from galleries, the wreaths could be arranged with freedom, and so as to bring out effectually the various designs and ideas connected with the festival. . . It being Trinity Sunday, the idea of the day was brought out by three, circular festons, hung into each other on every one of the three fold gas brack-ets along the wall. So also three box covered crosses back of the pulpit, three hower prese on the staw, and three boyuets hung into the wreaths in front of the pulpit, three shows appropri-table more than a front of the pulpit. The more proarches was the date of the formation of the Gallery is haven, and is been present in the strain of the formation of the Gallery is haven, and his callery is haven, and his callery is haven, and his callery is haven.
