Drawing Dead Men's Teeth.-The 'celebrated Mungo Park served an appren-'ticeship in a doctor's drug shop in Selkirk, and during his study of physic compounds. the following little episode, which we had from a venerable doctor of medicine, oc-'curred:

to the store one day, and looking in an excited manner at the boy, said : 'Mungo, is the doctor in ?'

'No, sir.' 'O Lord! and I'm nearly dead wi' the Roothache.

But I'll draw the tooth for you, if you wish it drawn.'

You, callant ! Did ve'ever draw anv 'teeth a fore !'

'Yes, I have, sir.' 'Faith, I'll rather come back again and see the doctor than lippen ye! The old gentleman went off, and, ere long, he returned with the old question: Mungo, my man, is the doctor in now !'

'No.sir, he's not come in yet.' What am I to do ! I'm nearly daft wi' the pain, Mungo, are ye perfectly down. right sure yev'e arawn teeth before

"Foolscap."-Everybody knows what foolscap paper is: but few probably know how it came to bear this singular cognomes. When Charles I. found his revenue short, he granted certain privileges, with a view to recruit them, amounting to monopolies, and among these was the manufacture of paper, the exclusive right of which was sold to certain parties, who grew rich and enriched the Government Duniel S. Early, grew rich and enriched the Government also at the expense of those who were obliged to use paper. At this time all the paper bore in water marks the royal arms. The Parliament under Cromwell made jests of this law in every conceivable manner; and, under other indignities to the memory of King Charles, it was ordered that the royal arms be removed from the paper, and the foolscap and bells' be substituted. These, in their turn, were also removed when the Rump of. Parliament was prorogued: but paper of the size of the Parliament Journal still bears the name of 'foolscap.'

tion was made for the removal of some postmaster or deputy postmaster in one of the Northern States, and it was urged upon the President with a great deal of earnestness, first by letter, and then by a special committee came here and remonstrated with great bitterness against the O During Jackson's term an applica. strated with great bitterness against the continuance of this violent political opponent of the President. To cap the climax as the committee supposed, of the postmaster's offence, and insure his removal, they told the President that the obnoxious officer had called General Jackson a 'd-d gray headed — .' 'Did he ?' said the General 'He did.' 'If I am not mistaken, said Jackcon, that man stormed Stony Point under Wayne, and any man who did that has my permission to be a postmaster, and to curse me for the balance of his life.

Fire Among the Animals.-A letter from Stuttgardt, Germany, says: 'A destuctive fire recently broke out in a house adjoining our Zoological Garden. It was a horrible spectacle to see the tury of the animals, terrified by the sight of the fire and of the extreme heat. Nothing could exceed the rage of the ferocious inmates of the garden, particularly of the lions and bears, and, in order to calm them, the keepers were obliged to be constantly deluging them with cold water. The military authorities sent a detachment of military authorities sent a detachment of riflemen to fire on the animals in case it should be impossible to save them. Fortunately that extraority was not found. tunately that extremity was not found necessary, as the fire was extinguished."

Friends and Relatives BRAVE SOLDIERS & SAILORS

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take special care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ontmont; and where the brave Soldiers and Sallers have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need. COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS, Will be specifly relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable inedicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHE AND WANT OF APPETTIE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annexaces, obstructed perspiration, or enting and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. The origina must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetito.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dyscatery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the reluxation. This is a greet mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach, and thus remove all the actid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength fellow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.
