Election on Tuesday, October 13th, 1863

Drafting commenced in Philadelphia on Monday. About 9,000 men will be drafted in the city under the recent call for 300,000. Pennsylvania's share is about 40,000, or nearly 1,700 to each Congressional District. What credit, if any, will be is difficult to tell, and just as difficult to obtain correct information thereto It is also said that there has been a private call issued by the President for a certain number of men, but for how many or how long is vague and uncertain. It is certain, however, that the draft will be made at once, arms. and the impression that many entertain that the probable results of the recent battles at Gettysburg and Vicksburg, would do away with the Conscription act, have been mistaken
