"I seed that gent pick it up and put it in his mouth."

The unhappy country gentleman was convinced on the clearest evidence; he was bonnetted, had his coat split up the back, and was obliged, in addition, to pay the wager to the detective.

Roswell F-, a Vermont lawyer of distinguished ability, now residing as St. Louis and in the first rank of the bar of Missouri, had brought a suit in court which was really so plain a case for the plaintiff, that, having submitted the papers and other proofs to the court, he felt that his client's interest required no more, and he accordingly sat down without making the customary opening address. But the defendant's counsel, more ambitious of rhetorical display, and probably conscious that defence required the best abilities, rose and made a long harangue, characterized by an immense flood of pompous words, as was his custom, but destitute of even an attempt at logic or reasoning of any kind. When he had done, the plaintiff's counsel, who was expected to make an elaborate speech in reply, rose, and merely said: "May it please the court and the gentlemen of the jury, in this case I shall follow the example of the counsel for the defence, and submit 'the case without argument!'

We find the following extraordimary statement in the New Lisbon (Ohio) - Patriot, of the 19th ult.:

OUTRAGEOUS BARBARITY.-We are informed that on Tuesday evening in Liverpool, about thirty women and five men, dressed in women's clothes, started out with tar and feathers after the Democratic women in that town. They first went to the house of Mrs. Morris, a widow woman, and a boy called her to the door .-He then took hold of her and tore off all her clothes except her chemise. The crowd of she fiends then came up and dressed her in a coat of tar and feathers. They next went to the house of Mrs. Lee, whose husband died in the army three months ago. She fought like a tigress, but the foul she fiends succeeded in taring her in the same way. Five other Democratic women were tarred and feathered. We have no comments on this inhuman

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I was indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the prosent year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despuired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Particular Notice.

There are meny preparations sold under the name of Biters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Auise or Coriandar seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hooflan's Germa Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will for excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost which least founce tion with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.
