|  | Cobnan |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| ※ziziz | V0L． 1 ¢̆－－N0．${ }^{\text {万．}}$ | EBANON，PA．，WEDNESDAY，JULY 22， 186 |  |  | LE N0． |  |
|  |  | Miscellamenty． |  | that sentinel perdu＇－that lone picket－detained bim until it was too lateto accomplish his purpose．His ma－jesty，no doubt，writhod at the deten－ |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | NAPOLEON MIINEL AND THE SEN－   |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | In | caught seven spore all receited strictterday，and wo ande to be unusually vigilant．－Icannot nllow any one to pass who is |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | cannot allow any one to pass who is not en regle．＂ ＂In vain Gamble insisted that such |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ， |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| warc Assecieion ${ }^{\text {a }}$ |  |  |    |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | was impatientlf titching his long |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | －Loe me pasemy friend，urged the emperor．I hake importantorders to |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | ＂Touching bif horse，ho moved for ward |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | our aid．Napoleon III．，Emperor ofFrance，the mightiest moriarch inRurope，with the fate of two nations |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | portance．He made no effort to shooor disarm the sentinel．He felt theman was doing his duty，and he |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | Mort |  |  | $\begin{aligned} & \text { He knew that no oxcuse could havo } \\ & \text { palliated any other course of action. } \\ & \text { Obedience is tho soldiers first law- } \\ & \text { from the highest to the lowest. } \end{aligned}$ |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | defence，it was one of the most re－ markable sioges，perhaps the most re－ markable，of which mention is made |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | in history． The news of the fallare was receiv－ ed by the ministry at Madrid with |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Foritemions．and that tho ghatisn |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Steme |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | coly |  |
|  |  |  |  | Had foreseent the coming storm，chiof．   | British ministry will have the courageto look the question fairly in the face，and I will think no more of it．＂ |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | body andmind．＂Certainly not；andthe consequenca was，that Hunter |
| O |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | artillery and engineers，giving a totalof five thousand three hundred and | modes of terminating life；yet，rapidas it is，the body has leisure to feeland reflect．On the first attempt，by | died early．If men will insist in cheating sleep，ber ctwin sister Death＂will avenge the insult． |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | one of the frantic adherents of Spain， to assassinate William，Prince of Or－ | Plumbers＇Reterials． CHARERES WEEIEENN， |
| georgeclark， DENTIST： |  |  |  |  | ange，wo took tho lead in the revole of the Notiorlands，the ball passed the | 边 |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | Sex |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | ron was discovered near Cape St． Vincent，and after a severe conflict was defeated．The unfavorable dis． |  |  |
|  |  |  | Sele |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | were carried on with renewed vigor， batteries were supplied with gund of the beaviest metal，and two hurided | followed by a pang．From what is known of the first effoct of gun－shot wounde，it is probable that the im． | 为： |
|  |  |  |  | the heaviest metal，and two hundred | pression is stunning rather than acute． unless death bo ipmediate，the pain is as varied as the nature of the inju－ |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | cantering along，when suddenly a sol－dier stepped from bebind $a$ clamp of |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| aseme |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | $\begin{aligned} & \text { garrison for the purpose of destroyng } \\ & \text { tho bat toites, and in a few minutes } \\ & \text { drove from them the astonished Span- } \\ & \text { iards. Tho gins and mortars were } \end{aligned}$ |  |  |
| Tist |  |  |  | Nomel |  |  |
| RTMER HOUS | Estamished 1760 |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | coming back as he had gone－in tho rance as to the mot d＇odre | of massing bis troops at Stradella，while he really intended making thatgrand circuit which broughthim upon | $\begin{aligned} & \text { Thas, in somewhat less than two hours } \\ & \text { the gigantic worlss which tho enemy } \\ & \text { had raised at an expence of two mill. } \\ & \text { ions sterling, wore annihilated. Span. } \end{aligned}$ |  | \％ 7 |
|  |  |  |  | ish pride，no less than sense of na－tional interest，now indacod his Cath．olic Majesty and bis ministers to di－ |  |  |
|  |  |  | grand cireuit which broughthim upon the flank of the Austrian army，to their utter dismay and discomfiture |  |  | －譶 1 |
|  |  |  | emperor up to the very moment he beard of the battle of Montecello，fal． |  |  | ， |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Natan |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | session of his troops；in fact；that he |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | bois do cotoe dei eenhemi，whicu must |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

