Athough not disposed to favor or recommend. Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredient and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have see lived from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, ander the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and fog, encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despated of regaining. I therefore thank Gol and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

And The Friends of Soldiers!

And the attention of all having relations and friends in the army, to, the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sck, it will be indiced that a very large proportion are suffering from deoility. Every case of that kind can be readily chred by Hoofand's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if the& Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

prive the soldiers of the exercise of the elective franchise. In 1861, when the returns of the elections held by the Pennsylvania volunteers were opened, they were found to contain a forged return from a regiment alleged to be commanded by a certain Colonel William Shimpfeller, which gave the Abolition candidates in this city a majority of over eight hundred votes. This return, although a palpable torgery, would, (a majority of whom were Abolitionists,) and would have been made by them the basis of certificates in favor of their candidates, had not an injunction been obtained from the Suburg.
