The Mobile Register, an earnest advocate of secession, describes the Abelitionists in their true light, when it says that Lincoln practically is not so great Every kind of meat sold in the mar an enemy to the South as Vallandig. ham. The editor of that paper says he knows, from the conversation he has had with Vallandigham, that he is desirous of having the Union restored, and is opposed to the doctrine of secession. He goes on further by saying that should Vallandigham be elected Governor of Ohio, he might elected Governor of Ohio, he might give them serious trouble. The South, Brown Sheetings, 81c per yd. he says, are fighting, for their independence, and the Abolitionists for dominion and power. The leaders Delains, of the Rebellion are fearful that the Dress Goods, Demograts may succeed, and hence their prayers to President Lincoln Wadding to interfere in behalf of the Abolitionists. For the Advertiser. THE "SOLDIER'S FRIEND."

EDITOR ADVERTISER :- One of the tin to point to a single act of his which can be construed into friendship for the soldier, such as is claimed we properly understand it, is one who is interested in his welfare; one whose every act is characterized with sympathy for him; one who labors with unabated zeal to have all his wants nttended to, and one who is not influenced by political motives. Examine the record of Governor Curtin since his elevation to the Gubernatorial chair, and see whether you find him possessing these essential traits. Let your mind revert to the outbreak of this unhappy Rebellion, and ascertain for yourself if he deserves the appellation of "Soldier's Friend." The soldier and civilian have not forgotten how the soldiers were defrauded when the first call was made for volunteers; what a disgrace was entailed on Pennsylvania, through the incompetency of Governor Curtin's Administration. Pennsylvania soldiers were the laughing stock of the army, because of the inefficiency of their clothing. Another scheme of the Abolition.

franchised the soldier from voting while ho is serving in the army. The opposition know this to be untrue, but in order to make votes for Curtin they take recourse to the basest lies, hoping thereby to tarnish the honestly acquired reputation of Judge Woodward, in the estimation of the voters of this State. They have not the manliness to state the facts as they really existed when the learned Judge declared the army vote unconstitutional. Two years ago, in the city of Philadelphia, a Democratic sheriff was elected with the aid of the army vote, by about nine hundred majority. By counting the home vote he was defeated by several hundred. The Abolitionists contended that the army vote was not in accordance with the Constitution, and the case was brought before Judge Woodward by them for decision. He docided in favor of the Abolition sheriff. Here is an evidence of the impartiality of Judge Woodward when called upon to interpret the laws of the State. In this decision he was sustained by Judge Read, the only Republican on the Bench, and the Logislature of last year fully concurred in the decision of Judge Woodward, when they unanimously passed a res-olution to amend the Constitution so as to allow soldiers the right of sufthe State Legislature admit the cor- State: With all this heavy load of in- Hartford Times. rectness of his decision, by proposing | iquity upon his head, Curtin has been and voting for an amendment to the Constitution to extend to the soldier the right to vote? The truth is, the followers of the shoddy Governor are becoming desperate, because of the hopelessness of their cause, and no act is too base for them to resort to. The people of the who are interested in prolonging the Old Keystone are rising in their mabeen resting upon them for the last three years, owing to the imbecility the requisites of a good Governor he would never have permitted the disgraceful invasion of our State, where by thousands of our citizens were compelled to flee from their homes, leaving their property to the mercy of the invaders. Though Pennsyl vania has been twice invaded, the Governor has not profited by it in the least, as the border is now as defenceless as it ever was. It appears as if Governor Curtin was desirous of having another visit from the Rebels-if the contrary, why does he not send the troops which are lying idle in Pennsylvania to the border, and why does he not petition the Administration at Washington to send him the troops in and around New York city. As the draft has been enforced in that city there is no necessity for having troops stationed there. If the Governor does not soon do somothing for the protection of the State, he call upon the "Copperhead" Governors of New York and New Jersey for troops to expel the Rebels from our soil. The people have one right guaranteed them by the Constitution, which they are determined to exercise, and that is the right of suffrage. They will not allow themselves to be intim-

LETTER FROM A RETURNED SOLDIER. The Soldier's Vote for Woodward.

Perry County, Aug. 25, '63. Mesers. Editors of the Patriot and Union : I saw in this week's. Telegraph an article under the editorial head, stating that "no soldier or real friend of the soldier can vote Judge Woodward," going on further to say the returned soldiers and those now in the field must answer whether Judgo Woodward should receive their votes. It is certainly very remarkable that the Telegraph will even allow the soldiers the privilege of answering and judging for himself-for, in the first place, he makes a bold assertion that they will not support Woodward, even excluding their friends from his support. He has a long preamble ed next day, and had a hearing, Free which he tries to stuff down the man and Culver were sent to jail. throats of the soldiers, asserting that Douglass gave bail in $500. The Judge Woodward decided unconstitutionally, that they should not bo allowed to vote out of the State .-The soldiers comprising our armies possess probably as much intelligence as the editor of the Telegraph, and they are as fully aware as he is, or as he ought to be that, it was a logal decision, and that it was impossible for Judge-Woodward to make.

Now, Mr. Telegraph, I will just vard will get the majority of them. They think it is time for a change of Governors, and that Judge Woodward who has never been one of the old political hacks, is just the man for the place. HORRIBLE OUTRAGE BY NEGROES.

A most horrible outrage was per petrated on Sanday evening last, by three negroes, upon the person of Miss Hattie Johnson, at Cambridge city, in Wayne county, the hot-bed of Abolitionism in this State. Miss Johnson belongs to one of the oldest and most respectable families in that county. On the evening named, as sho was returning home from church in company with her cousin, a lad eightoon years of age, she was attacked by three negroes, Wm. Freeman, Wm. Culver, and John Douglass, who conveyed her to an unfrequented spot, and their violated her person.
