SMART.—The Republicans had "For THE AMENDICANT appended to their rickets, giving the election officers a great deal of unneces sary trouble. The amendments were not to be voted on this fall, and it was put on the tickets voted on this fall, and it was put on the tickets either to hoodwink the soldiers, or else, in innorance of the faw, a cotalice windless of the faw, a cotalice windless of those who claim to represent the "intelligent and loyal" people of Lebanon county.

It is said that in several of the beavy republican districts of this county a large number of republican votes were illegally polled.—
In enasistance principally, helivern twenty in an attainty, votes were putein of persons, who had not load taxes in two years, nor were they assessed, the assessed easessing the tax on the day of the election, receiving it and giving receipts therefor, and the votes were put in in spite of the law and and the votes were put in in spite of the laward the protestations of the Democrats. If the election that been fuirly held the Republican majorial than the publican majorial than the publican majorial than the publicant to be ty in this county would be considerable below the 1000. We cannot see how election officers can while their consciences after committing so parable a violation of the oaths they had

Nancy, where are you going, that you are in such a hurry?

ANSWER.—Why we are just on our way to Baily's Photograph Gallery, to have our pictures taken. He takes splendid pictures, and his Gallery is nearly all the time crowded. So I said to Nancy we will go early this morning before any body elso gets there, or we will have to come away again without getting any. Quest.—Ves! I have heard too that Deliy's Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, and so why don't you go to some other Gallery?

ANS.—Oh my! we could not think of such a thing.—We admire the true and beautiful picture that 'Daily takes, so much that we would not go to another Gallery if we could get them for nothing. He has seven years, experience in the business, haes a complete set of improved instruments, an excellint sky-light, and there fore takes the best pictures n town and so of course every body that wants a good picture goes to him.

Ourse very body that wants a good picture goes to him.

have been taken in our large cities. His Ambrotypes are beautiful, and can't be best [He] also excels in copying pictures from small Daguerrectypes, and enlarging them almost to any size. Quest Where is this Gallery? I must give him a call too.

Ans.—Just coine along with Wahey and I, and we will show you. It is in Stine's New Building next door to the Lebanon Deposit Bank. He has constantly on hand a good assortment of Gilt and Rosewood Frames, Cases, Albums, &c., which he sells cheap.—For good and cheap Pictures we advise all to go to Daily's Gullery, *Lobanon,* Pa.
