The
"ffriends of the soldiers" if the lat ter vote the Abolition ticket, otherwise not. They think more of $a$ pot housie politicion who yever fir who votes their ticket, than they do bloody battle fields if they happen to be Demecrats. Hence it is no wonder that McClellan should re-The parade of the WIDE AW AKES on Tuesday evening of affair of the kind that ever took place in Lebanon. It was with in by several score of boys and y borrowed from Reading, inapplicable to this place, and hence hundred. Expectation had been put on tip-toe in regard to the groat affair to take place, but it proved What has been asserted over and have misgivings of the propriety of their victory and whether it ould not be better for the coun try, themselves and posterity t ment into the hands of the only party capable of guiding-the Democratic party. And above all aings, the lamps and capes of 1860 ere the nost inappropriate of all. teeping the cold sleep of death on imping about the country depri d of health and limbs, might ca ghastly smile on them and muteports also that Lee was advanc ng into Pennisylvania had a de pressing effect upon "the last man and the last dollar" crew. They tood aloof fearful that it might be their night march with lamps into march with muskets and knapsacks after the rebels-an occupation they love to SEE but not to do.
The second-hand parade ended as it began, in oloour.
