No person has to be dread to patronize it. It is a thing that takes better than anything ever before of fered. You can make modey with it home or abroad—on steamboats or railroad cars, and in the country or city. You will be pleased in pursaing it, not only because it will yield a handsom—income, but also in consequence of the general admiration which it elicits It is protty much all profit. A mere trifle is necessary to start wich.

There is scarcely one person out of thousands who ever pays any attention to advertisements of this kind, thinking they are humbuge. Consequently those who do send for instructions will have a broad field to make money in. There is a class of persons in this world who think that because they have been humbugged out of a dollar or so, that everything that is advertised is a humbug. Consequently they try no more. The person who succeeds is the one that keeps on trying until he hits something that pays him.

This fart cost me one thousand dollars, and I expect to make money out of it—and all who purchase the act, of me will do the same. One Dollar sent to me will in sure the Prompt return of a card of instructions in the art. The money will be returned to those mol actisfied.
