of no mean order.

gentleman, G. G, Esq., was appointed high sheriff of the town of He was a man of fortune, and had a kind heart, as many a poor prisoner could testify, who partook of the good cheer with which the pris. oners were liberally supplied at Christmas and other known festivals, from the private purse of the high sheriff. It was of course, the duty of the high sheriff to summon a grand and petit jury to attend at the quarter sessions, of which the recorder, may or and aldermen of the borough composed the court. In the performance of his official duty in summoning the petit jury, our sheriff indulged in some of the strangest and drollest freaks that have probably ever been heard of in any other town or country. In the first place he summoned for the October court a jury consisting of twelve of the fattest men he could find in the borough, and when they came to the book to be sworn, it appeared that only nine jurors could sit comfortably in the box! After a great deal of sweating, squeezing and scolding, the panel was literally jump. scolding, the panel was literally jumed into the box, and when seated they ry' and no mistake. For the January term, our facetious high sheriff (in consequence, it is said, of some hint from the recorder that there should be no more fat panels summoned to his court,) went into the opposite extreme.—He summoned twelve of the leanest and tallest men he could flud in the borough; and when they took their seats in the box, it appeared comparatively empty-there was indeed room for twelve more of the same sort and dimensions.

presented to the eye of the court, the baristers and the audience, 'the tight-

For the April term of the court, our humorous functionary summoned a jury consisting of twelve barbers!-Now it so bappened that among the latter were the perriquiers who dressed the recorders' and barrister's wigs, and some of the latter, arriving late at the bar had to appear that morning in court with their wigs undressed, so as to cut a very ridiculous figure, amidst the smiles and half-suppressed laughter of the by standers. The high sheriff enjoyed the fun amazingly, but looked as 'grave as a Judge, while he tried to keep silence READYMADE CLOTHING in the court room.

"But the crowning joke of this waggish functionary occurred at the sum moning of his fourth and last jury, at the sumers session of July. For that term of the court, the high sheriff, not having the fear of the recorder, the having the fear of the recorder, the mayor and the aldermen, before his eyes, actually summoned a squinting jury. Twelve as queer looking bipeds as ever took their seats in a jury box -a jury that was probably more looked at, and laughed at, than any of the appointed twelve that ever were sworn to well and truly try and true deliverance make between their sovereign lord and king and the prison er at the bar.'

But the scene was so irresistibly droll that the learned recorder could not maintain his gravity. The may-or and aldermen followed suit.—The barristers laughed, while their wigs became bald, powderless; nay, even the poor prisoners in the dock, who were to be put on their trial, and some of them undergo transportation, could not refrain from joining the general cachination!—And when the learned recorder commanded the high sheriff to bring the court room to order, and intimated, with a half-suppressed laugh, that the latter ought to be ashamed of himself for summon. ing such a jury, the drollery of this court scene was heightened considerably by the quick, ready and sonorous response of the high sheriff, who looking at the same time at the squinting 'jury, exclaimed, 'All good and lawful men, your honor.'—English Paper.

ODDITIES OF FEMALE COSTUME. These abounded in the reign of Edward III. We read that the public shows the ladies rode in party colored tunies, one half of them being of one color and the other half of another with short hoods and liripipes (the long tail of tippets of the hoods) wrapped about their heads like cords. Their girdles were handsomely ornamented with gold and silver, and they wore small swords, commonly called daggers, before them in pouches, and thus habited they were mounted on the finest horses that could be procured, ornamented with the richest furniture. In full dress the apearance for the above will attended to.

[March 11, 1863. of the ladies was as gorgeous as warlike. In a work by Pierce Ploughman, written, it is supposed, about 1350, the poet speaks of a woman richly clothed, her garments purpled, faced or trimmed with fine furs, her robe of a scarlet color in grain, and splendidly adorned with ribands of red gold, interspersed with precious stones of great value. Her head tie, he says, he has not time to describe, but she wore a crown that even the king had no better. Her fingers were all embellished with rings of gold, set with diamonds, rubies, and sapphires, of this book.

A word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will reflect.

A class of maladies prevail to a fearful extent in the community, dooming at least 100,000 youth of both sexes annually, to an early grave. Those diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external immification, or symptoms are Nervous Debility, Relaxation and Exhaustion; Marasmus or wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing or hurried breathing on ascending a hill or flight of stairs; great palpitation of the Heart; Asthma, Bronchitis and sore Throat; skaking of the Hands and Limbs; aversion to society and to business or study; dimness of eye sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the Head, Neurulgia, Pain in various parts of the body; Pains in the back or limbs, Lumlago, Diapepsia or Indigestion, irregularity of the bowels, deranged secretion of the Kidneys and other glands of the bedy, as Leccorologa or Flear Albus, &c. Likewise Epilepy, Hysteria and Nervous Spasms.

Now in ninety-nine cases out of every one hundred, all the aboved named disorders, and a host of others not named, as consumption of the Lungs and that most insidious and wily form of Gonsumption of the Spinal Nerves, known as Tabes Dorsules; and Tabes Messenteries, have their seat and origin in diseases of the Pelvic Viscera. Hence the want of success on the part of old school practice in treating symptoms only.

Dr. Andrew Stone, Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institution, is now engaged in treating this class of Modern Maladies with the most astonishing success. The treatment adopted by the Institution is new; it is based upon sclentific principles, with new discovered remedies, without minerals or poisons. To facilities of cure are such that patients can be cured at their bones, in any part of the country, from accurate descriptions of their case, by letter; and have the medicines son thy Malio rexpress. Printed interrogatives or advice must enclose return stamps, to meet attention.

Company.

Located At Jonestown, Lebanon Co.

To the property holders of the State of Pennsylvania:—Gentlemen: Your attention is respectfully solicited to the following low rates of insurance of the Lebanon Mutual Insultance Company are ample to indemnify those who may take advantage through its agency of the means afforded them of being protected against loss by fire. The Board of Directors are practical business men well and fayorably known, and enjoying the entire confidence and respect of the community in which they live. Our Company is perfectly mutual and we invite your careful attention to the following low rates as we are determined to insure as low as any other responsible company, taking into consideration the character of the risks incurred. Our CHARTER being PERPETUAL, enables us to issue Policies which never expire, which obviates the necessity of renewal every 3 or 5 years.

The Company has now been in successful operation for nearly 6 years, and all its losses have been promptly paid to the satisfaction of all parties concerned; and, in fact it hus been, and still continues to be, the wish of the Directors to have the Company conducted on honest and economical principles.
