FROM BAD TO WORSE—By a recent order of Gen. Sherman, in West Tennessee, every person capable of doing military service in that district, is impressed into the army.

THE ADMINISTRATION AT WASHINGTON, or the Congress of the United States, have no more right to violate or set aside the Constitution, than have Jeff. Davis and his horde of rebels in and about Richmond.

IN ABOUT FIVE WEEKS OF THE DRAFT, in answer to the President's Proclamation for "300,000 more," as well as all back "dues," will take place, unless the quota is filled by volunteering.

A GOOD many abolition—blood and thunder—last man and last dollar sermons were preached over the country on "Thanksgiving day," but so far as we have learned not one of the preachers or listeners have volunteered in consequence thereof.

TRUTH—A friend, the other day in speaking of the political preaching now rife in most of the churches, declared that the time would come when the people would have Democratic and Abolition churches, and between the two they would all go to the devil.

FORMERLY, men would say—"I am glad I was in church." Now, many say—"I am glad I was not in church," particularly, when, after an abolition sermon, it is asserted publicly, that "the copperheads got their bellies full."

THE BOMBARDMENT ON Fort Sumter is still kept up, and we expect to take it before long.

WHO ARE THE TRAITORS?

The abolitionists who are "sick" of hearing men prate about adhering to the Constitution in times of rebellion, would do well to read the opinion of Judge Woodward on the constitutionality of the Conscription law published in last week's ADVERTISER.

Battle at Chattanooga.

GRANT VICTORIOUS!

A three days battle was fought in the vicinity of Chattanooga, last week, between our army under General Grant and the rebels under General Bragg.

ON Monday General Hooker began the fight by crossing from the narrow neck of land to the south side of Lookout creek and driving the enemy's pickets before him over some comparatively low lands, until he had captured the ground up to the base of Lookout Mountain.

ON Tuesday he again advanced upon the slope of Lookout Mountain, having about sixteen thousand men in his column. He fought strenuously all day, gradually moving up the side of the mountain, and at six o'clock in the afternoon had carried the front pretty well up, and part of one of the side slopes.

ON Wednesday the battle was again renewed. During the night the Confederates evacuated Lookout Mountain and retired across the intervening valley to Mission Ridge.

A SPECIAL DISPATCH says our losses in killed and wounded, on the 23d, 24th and 25th inst., at the storming of Lookout Mountain, were 9,000, and in the assault on Mission Ridge about 2,000.

THE LATEST news from Knoxville is to Wednesday. The north part of the town is burned, including the railroad depot.

GENERAL BURKHEAD is cheerful and confident. Various indications give color to the idea that the siege of Knoxville was raised on Tuesday or Wednesday, and that Longstreet is by this time back at Bragg's camp.

PRISONERS' RATIONS IN RICHMOND.

[From the Richmond Examiner, Nov. 21.] As the Yankee press and people are just now dreadfully exercised in regard to the quantity and quality of the food furnished the Yankee prisoners, we append the bill of fare served daily at the Libby and Castle Thunder, furnished us by the commandants of these two posts.

AT the Libby, one pound of fresh bread or crackers and a half pound of fresh beef (the fatted cow killed daily for their feasting,) varied daily by sweet potatoes and nutritious soup.

THIS same ration is also served on Belle Isle, and is the identical food that the lying, vindictive, Puritan chaplains stigmatize "as pitiful and unfit to eat upon any occasion of their return to the North."

OUR greatest regret is, that the soldiers in General Lee's army are not furnished with the same rations every day. At the Castle, where are confined the Confederate prisoners and several hundred Yankee deserters and Union men, the rations consist of half a pound of fresh meat and half a pound of bread for breakfast, and for dinner and supper, combined, half a pound of bread of excellent sort, cabbage (the best we ever saw) turnips and sweet potatoes forging the ingredients.

MURDER WILL OUT.—E. C. Morris, a wealthy citizen of Madison, Ill., has been arrested, charged with murdering a man nearly nine years ago.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A few days ago, Mrs. Cline, wife of Constable Levi Cline, of Greensburg, Pa., was severely scalded in the face by the explosion of a fruit can.

FROM MEADE'S ARMY.—The Army of the Potomac has crossed to the south side of the Rapidan in three columns, as many as four, from six to ten miles above the confluence of the Rappahannock and the Rapidan.
