At an election for officers of the Lebanon County Agricultural Society held on Saturday, Hon. Wm. Rank was re-elected President; George Heilman and C. P. Steinmetz, Vice Presidents; Isaac Hoffer, Secretary, and Solomon Smith, Treasurer.

A colored recruiting officer enlisted several white men in this place, last week, and carried them to Harrisburg to be mustered into the service of the United States. This proves that volunteering is not played out, but is rather impugning the efficiency and capability of white officers scattered over the north whose efforts meet with but indifferent success. Since this war has become a war for the emancipation of the negroes, and not for the best interests of the white men, we believe in giving those who are to benefit by it a share in the work, and moreover if negroes are more efficient in doing a certain duty we cannot see why they should not be employed in doing that duty, Let our white recruiting officers bestir themselves or Old Abe will certainly appoint in their stead some colored American citizen of African descent.

A County Meeting will be held in the Court House, on Saturday next, January 16, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of offering a bounty to volunteers to fill the quota of Lebanon county, and avoid the impending draft. Let there be a large turn out.

Rev. A. M. Able will preach next Sunday at Cornwall.

The Courier is speaking of Capt. Rogers, says:—"he said to us, 'I entered the army as a conservative democrat; I am now the blackest kind of an abolitionist.'"

☞ We know that Capt. Rogers voted for Mr. Lincoln for President, and hence the Courier must either have misunderstood him, or Capt. R. must be making a curious misapplication of terms, unless he is subject to frequent changes of political belief. However, Capt. R. is a good soldier, a faithful officer and a gentle man, and we will not quarrel with him about his political mantle, which the Courier probably reported unauthorizedly.

Jacob Weidle, jr., Esq, has commenced the practice of the law at the residence of his father, corner of Water and Market streets, Lebanon.

Mr. John H Miller has been made an Assistant Sergeant at Arms in the Legislature.

For the Advertiser.

Look to your Monthly Return of Slaughtered Cattle, Hogs and Sheep!

MR. EDITOR:—I have seen some blank returns distributed by the Assistant Assessor rating Hogs exceeding six months old at ten cents per head. The amended Law, approved March 3, 1863, says "and on Hogs slaughtered exceeding 100 lbs in weight, without regard to age, six cents each." Now, sir, will you please inform the public, whether it is intense patriotism, intense knowledge of the Law, intense ignorance of their duties, or what is it that induces the ass Assessors to put on the additional four cents on hogs slaughtered, over and above what the Law requires; and also whose perquisite the four cents is, or if it is divided pro-rata and amongst whom? RURIS.

LITTLE THINGS.—People who are unaccustomed to studying economy in their arrangements, have little idea how easily money may be saved, and at the same time comfort secured by a little attention to a little economy in little things. In illustration, take the little article of metal tips worn on the toes of little shoes. It is asserted that by this article alone, the snug little sum of over six million dollars is annually saved to those who use them, and at the same time not a little amount of comfort and protection added to some three million pair of little feet. So with many other little things.—[Tribune.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On last Saturday, the 9th inst., Mr. Samuel Leivig, a middle aged resident of Millcreek township in this county, met with a fatal accident while engaged in hurling cloverseed. In attempting to adjust the strap on the pully of the cylinder, he was caught by the strap and had his left arm shockingly mangled, and his head was contused by a violent fall on the barn floor, which stunned him so much so that he became instantly insensible. Dr. Zarbe, of Shaefferstown, and Dr. Livengood, of Womelsdorf, were called on but the shock was so fearful that reaction could not be brought about sufficiently to have warranted an operation. The accident happened at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 2 next morning he expired. Mr. Leivig was a highly respectable farmer, a peaceable citizen, and a neighbor who leaves many friends to mourn his death.

Serg't Daniel Hain, Co. "G," 86th Illinois volunteers, formerly from near Reading, Pa., but more recently of Circleville, Ohio, was killed on the 3d ult., by the accidental discharge of a gun while on the march to reinforce Gen. Burnside. It occurred near Loudon, Tenn., under the following circumstances: At about 3 P. M., on the 3d, the Division Column halted to rest, Sergt. Hain had just seated himself on the ground, when a private of the same Co., close by him, carelessly threw his gun down which caused it to go off. The ball entered his left side and came out on his back just below the right shoulder. He was killed instantly.

His death, writes a correspondent, cast a gloom over the whole company; always prompt and faithful in his duties as a soldier. After the battle of Mission Ridge, which had been anticipated with considerable solicitude for some time—he remarked and expressed his gratitude to his comrades in the following words: "Well another battle has been fought and won, and not one of us killed nor wounded." But, alas, how uncertain is life and how easily lost! Only a few days after he uttered the above words, he was a corpse. A beautiful Bible was presented to him by some young ladies of Washington, Ills., where he resided when he enlisted. It was taken from his breast pocket, in his coat, where he was in the habit of carrying it. He read it frequently.—The whole company laments his death and extends its sympathies to his parents, brothers and sisters, upon whom the loss of a beloved son and brother will fall most heavily. It was hard for us to deposit his remains in a strange country, far away from home, where the kind hands of the parent, sister or brother cannot ornament the tomb or plant the evergreen. But his body of clay will sleep as calmly, and his spirit shine as brightly in heaven, as though it slept beneath the weeping willow of the favorite spot in the Cemetery.

Sergt. Hain has many relatives in this county

MADAM PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM has long tested the truth that there are great principles in Medicines as there is in Science, and this Medicine is compounded on principles suited to the manifold nature of Man! The cure of Colds is in keeping open the pores, and creating a gentle internal warmth, and the is caused by the use of this Medicine. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, it enlivens the mucles and assists the skin to perform its duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body. It is not a voilent remedy, but emollient warming, searching and effective. Sold by all drug gists at 13 and 25 cents per bottle.

QUESTION.—Hollo! there Dick and Nancy, where are you going, that you are in such a hurry?

ANSWER.—Why we are just on our way to Baily's Photograph Gallery, to have our pictures taken. He takes splendid pictures, and his Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, so I said to Nancy we will go early this morning before any body else gets there, or we will have to come away again without getting any.

QUERY.—Yes! I have heard too that Daily's Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, and so why don't you go to some other Gallery?

ANS.—Oh my! we could not think of such a thing.—We admire the true and beautiful picture that Daily takes, so much that we would not go to another Gallery if we could get them for nothing. He has seven years experience in the business, has a complete set of improved instruments, an excellint sky-light, and there fore takes the best pictures in town, and so of course every body that wants a good picture goes to him.

QUERY.—What kind of Pictures does he take?

ANS.—He takes Photographs from miniature to life-size, plain or colored. His card pictures have been pronounced more truthful and life like than some that have been taken in our large cities. His Ambrotypes are beautiful, and can't be beat. He also excels in copying pictures from small Daguerreotypes, and enlarging them almost to any size.

QUERY.—Where is this Gallery? I must give him a call too.

ANS.—Just come along with Nancy and I, and we will show you. It is in Stine's New Building, next door to the Lebanon Deposit Bank. He has constantly on hand a good assortment of Gilt and Rosewood Frames, Cases, Albums, &c., which he sells cheap.—For good and cheap Pictures we advise all to go to Daily's Gallery, Lebanon, Pa.
