

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN LANCASTER. THE FIRST GUN OF 1864.

Hon. George Sanderson re-elected Mayor of the city of Lancaster on Tuesday last, by a majority of 117, being a Democratic gain of 68 since the October election.

The following is the order of Old Abe for the new draft of 300,000 additional men.

A NEW DRAFT FOR 500,000 MEN. Order of the President. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1864.

Missed the Mark!—the "deadly blow aimed at the Rebellion" by the Emancipation Proclamation and the arming of the negroes.

Don't see it.—The abolition papers don't see the result of the election in Lancaster, last week, in any of their columns.

Since the present abolition war commenced, the calls for men to support it have been as follows:— April 16, 1861, 75,000; May 4, 1861, 166,748; July 9, 1861, 300,000; August 4, 1862, 300,000; Draft of 1863, 300,000; February 1, 1864, 500,000.

Two million forty-nine thousand seven hundred and forty-eight men called out, three thousand million dollars expended, and sixteen times sixty days elapsed, and yet peace seems no nearer than it did before the first call was made.

The House bill to increase the internal revenue, as it passed the Senate on Thursday, imposes a tax on all distilled spirits of first proof made or sold, or manufactured for consumption or sale, as follows:—

On imported spirits, the tax is to be 40 cts. a gallon previous to July 1st; 50 cts. after July 1st and up to January 1st, 1865; and 60 cts. after January 1st, 1865.

The Senate struck out the House provision taxing spirits on hand for sale, and also the clause proposing an additional twenty cents per gallon on adulterated spirits sold as brandy, wine, &c.

Colt's Pistol Factory, at Hartford, Conn., was destroyed by fire on Friday evening, with all the machinery.

We are in receipt, per hands of Hon. Myer Strouse, of a copy of the Report of Major General George B. McClellan, of the operations of the Army of the Potomac while under his command.

The Army of the Potomac still lies quiet in the mud, and nothing further is said of a change of general. Cannonading has been heard from Washington, but its cause is not known.

The residents of a portion of Upper Providence township, Montgomery county, recently petitioned Court to have the township divided, as the portion from which they desire to be cut-off is not "loyal enough."

In New Orleans the Methodists and the Military have got to outs. The latter order prayers for "the President of the United States," which the former decline under coercion, and the consequence is that their doors are locked.

SHARP TRICK OF HORSE CONTRACTORS. Our Eastern horse-dealers are most generally noted as being "sharp on a trade," but the sharpest trick that has been played by the Abolition horse-contractors was recently near Washington City.

It will be remembered that some weeks ago a great stampede of horses took place from the Government enclosures a few miles below this city on the Potomac.

The District in which a new Senator is to be elected in place of Major White, by order of one Penny, is composed of Armstrong and Indiana, and gave Curtin 2,300 majority, sufficient margin, of course, to ensure the return of an abolitionist.

The siege of Charleston has been abandoned after a waste of upwards of two years, and an immense expenditure of blood and treasure.

The following incident we find among late news from New Orleans:— When the troops of the 8d Division of the 13th Army Corps were breaking up camp over the river, they were, as usual, surrounded by crowds of half-starved white women and children, some begging and some eagerly trying to purchase, with their little means, portions of a large pile of provisions that it was found inconvenient to take away, and in the face of that hungry, shivering, half-naked crowd, wood was laid on and the whole consumed.

It is stated that Mr. Dayton will shortly be recalled from Reno, and General Fremont appointed to succeed him.

Mr. Jesse Rhoads, of North Coventry township, Chester county, had one of his legs crushed by being run over by the passenger train at Pottstown, on Monday evening last.

A JUDGE ARRESTED.—Judge Oswald Thompson of Philadelphia, was arrested on Thursday as a deserter by an officer. Of course it was a mistake!

ABOLITION NEWS. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6, 1864. There is much more than the usual caucusing going on here in a quiet way, having reference to the Presidency, and the disposition to contend against the re-nomination of Mr. Lincoln is manifestly growing stronger.

Loval Court.—Palmer, the Secretary of the Loyal League State Committee of New York, was arrested for aiding in furnishing contraband goods to the South, to be tried by a military court, composed exclusively of "loyal" people like himself.

On the 18th instant, says the Pottstown Ledger, while some carpenters were engaged in making a cellar door for Mr. Jacob S. Hillgass, of Gilbertstown, Montgomery county, an axe in the hands of one of the men flew off the helve and struck J. William Hillgass, nearly severing his left ear from the head, besides dividing the temporal artery.

War on the Banks.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued an order that the notes or checks of State banks shall not be received for national taxes.

Where are all the "cents"—The scarcity of "cents" is attracting the attention of every one. As we do not export these coins, the question is asked what is becoming of them all, especially as there were coined during the last year at the mint in Philadelphia, fifty-four millions, three hundred and sixty thousand, being over four and a half millions per month.

Terrible Disclosures. A terrible disclosure has been made in a recent issue of the Standard, and it is a sad one. It is a disclosure of the extent of the consumption of opium in this country.

Statistics of Life and Death. We have faith in statistics. They give the death-blow to all false theories in science, and show why high the fine new theories of unpractical men. Medical statistics are of special importance. They teach us to estimate at the just value the efficacy of the drugs, which are the stereotypes of the "profession."

Special Notice. Madam Porter's Ointment Balm has long been the most successful remedy in medicine as it is in Science, and this medicine is composed of the most valuable ingredients of man.
