HIS LAST EFFORT.

A party of gentlemen who were mak ing a pleasure tour through the different watering places, were wont to amuse themselves at the table by relating anecdotes, cunundrums, &c. There was one gentleman among them, a Mr. A., who was always greatly delighted at these jokes, and laughed louder than the rest, but who never related anything himself. He was often railied for this, and he determined one day that the next time he was called upon, he would have something to relate. Meeting one of the waiters, he asked him if he knew any good jokes or conundrums. The waiter told him that he did, and related the follow-

'It is my father's child, and my mother's child, yet it is not my sister or brother, telling him at the same time that it was himself.

The gentleman bore it in mind, and the next day at dinner he suddenly broke 'I've got a conundrum for you.'

'Propound it!' exclaimed his companions. 'It is my father's child, and my mother's child, yet it is not my sister or brother, said the gentleman, throwing a triumphant glance around the table.

the company. T've got you now, you are all wrong, it is the waiter,-A shout of laughter interrupted A.,

who perceiving the mess he had got into, acknowledged the error, and told the company that he would pay for the wine. That was A.'s last effort.

A sailor took a child to be christened, and happening to hold his babe on the wrong arm for the clergyman to take it, was asked to "turn the child." upon which he turned it face downward. "No no." said the parson, "turn it, my good man," when he turned it face uppermost, as before. In this dilemma an old post captain, sitting in the gallery, came to the rescue, and sang out, "End for end Jack." "Aye, aye, sir," said the sailor, and pitched his son and heir over on the other arm.

Deacon Peters lately took occasion to administer a reproof for swearing to Joe Mills, a particularly wild fellow, but not intentionally "transgressional." Joe listened attentively to his words, and seemed to appreciate exhortation, and when he had concluded, replied as follows. "The fact is, deacon, that I swear a great deal, and you pray a great deal, but neither of us means anything by it." The deacon alludes to Joe as an instance of the most total degravity.

Highwaymen are plenty in Utah. They rob returning miners. A vigilance committee has been formed at Bannock who have hung twelve robbers and have seventy-two more on their list for similar treatment. 136 18 18

A FEW REASONS WHY THE AMERICAN WATCH IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all.

Let us look at the contrast. The foreign watch i mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "ancres," "le plues" and "Swiss levers" in professed repair for a fet years will appreciate the truth of our statement. THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH.
Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, scrowed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmeny of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its mach inery out of gear. Secession of one part from another is unknewn to its constitution, and if adding or any business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what all machinery should be—

OUR SOLDIER'S WATCH [named Wm. Ellery] is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always Reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching Riding or Fighting.

OUR YOUNG GENTLEMAN'S WATCH is neat, not large and just the thing for the pocket of Young America.

The PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over five hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.
