the Corner.

WHERE IS MY WIFE ? A correspondent who has not seen his wife for three weeks asks where she can be found. The lady referred to has been seized with the Sanitary Eair fever, and the poor husband complained : "For two months she was out most of the time, calling upon persons to Gained by Anything be kind. solicit their aid for this most deserving charity ; and when she was at It also rehome I could get no chance to see perlative Re port of her, for she was overrun -with callers, each, one on very important business. "Exceeding

"Bundles of all shapes and sizes :For Food. began to arrive. The garrett was al ready filled with them, and the balance had been stored in the back parlor. But my wife was so earnest (she is positively bewitching in her enthusiasm,) that I hadn't the heart to refuse, so I went to work and helped to carry the bundles in the house and store them where she wished. When the job was finished, I was glad to retire, though I had not read my paper. My wife—but thave you seen her?"

The bereaved husband heard of his wife at the committee-rooms and elsewhere, but can't get a sight of her. The poor fellow says :

Fair: building with hopes of seeing Fair: building with hopes of seeing her, but in vain. Every body has seen her, but nobody can tell where she is. Once I thought I caught a glimps of her dress whirling around the corner of the street, and I started to run, but I had to give up the chase I got very much out of breath; still i would not have minded it so much if thad only found my wife. Have you I had only found my wife. Have you seen her ?

"I am sure you have. Every body has-except her husband. Well, I suppose I must give up all hopes of seeing her until the Fair is closed.-Three weeks more without a wile !--Perhaps I may meet her at the Fair, but I don't count much on that."

Delightful wife!

A GOOD ONE .- The following is from Roger's "Table Talk" :

Dr. Fordyce sometimes drank-a good deal at dinner. He was sum-moned one evening to see a lady pa-tient when he was more than half seas over, and conscious that be was so. Feeling her pulse, and finding himself unable to count its beats, he muttered, "Drunk, by thunder !"-Next morning, recollecting the cir-cumstance, he was greatly vexed; and while thinking what explanation of his behavior he should offer to the lady, a' letter from her was put into his hand. "She too well knew," isaid the letter, "that he discovered the unfortunate condition in which she, was when he last visited has and TO THE PEOPLE OF LEBANON. she was when he last visited her, and "she ontreated him to keep the matter a secret, in consideration of the enclosed,"-(a hundred pound note.)

Mr. Sumner lifted his eyes temporarily from a great speech by Henry Ward Beecher, arose from his seat, wrapped the drapery of his dressing gown around him, viewed his visitor through his glasses and replied "No sir Ther his glasses and replied, "No, sir, I have not had time to attend to such mat-ters, I am devoted to a great ideaw, sir." The visitor departed, wishing the "great ideaw" in the bottom of the Atlantic, if not further South. No one who declines an invitation to drink can hereafter be regarded as an unconditional Union man. The Maine law is defunct and Whiskey is King! There is a wonderful Hindoo cheseplayer at present in London. He plays three games blindfolded and wins. At the same time he plays a game of cards, and wins. During the game a bell is touched every one or two seconds, and he gives the number of times it has been touched. A man stands behind and throws little pebbles one by one against his back; these too, he counts; and after the games are told be recites a poem in perfect rhyme which he has composed during the sitting.
