The Last " Hoop " Story .- The calamities of crinoline never will be told,-The last unhapy event comes to us from Long Island. A friend attended a public school exibition and-let our authority tell the rest :"

" He started up the stairway at a swift pace, not noticing any further, until he came nearly to the top of the steps, when he says a strange sensation came over him, and suddenly he found himself enveloped in darkness, as though the lights were extinguished. He was astonished and bewildered: But the mystery was soon explained, and it appeared that a lady, wearing a very large hoop, met him at the top of the stairs, and was just in the act of descending, when our friend, being a small man, had, without noticing gone up under the hoop !"

Wife and Husband alphabetically .- A wife should be amiable, benevolent, charitable, 'domestic, economical, forgiving, generous, honest, industrious, judicious, kind, loving, modest, pleasant, quiet reflecting, sober, tender, urbane, virtuous, wise, exemplary, yielding, and zealous.

A husband should be likewise; but says an old maid contributor, a good many of them, alphabetically and uniformly, are absurd, base, captious, depraved, exasperating, false, gloomy, heathenish, ignorant, jealous, knappish, lazy, mean, negligent, obdurate, profligate, quarrelsome, rash, selfish, tantalizing, ugly, vezing, whimsical, extricating, yawning, etc.

A GREEN ONE.-An exchange tells a good story of an innocent countryman who chanced to be in one of our cities on sunday, and concluded to go to church, arriving there he waited outside for a moment, when to his profound surprise, the organ struck, up, from which he conclu-and giving up her whole soul to him, was so happy in this spoiling of herself, so glad to be thus robbed, offering him the rich milk of love in a full udder of trust, and lowing for him to come and take it !"

The negroes in Jamaica, after emancipation, used to go through the streets sing. ing such jargon as the following :

"One, two tree, All de same ;

Black, white, brown, and the t

All de samé, 🔔 One, two, tree."

This would be a most appropriate song

This would be a most appropriate song for file universal nigger to sing in our churches and all over the land at the pres-ent day.
