The Corner.

A Good Joke by a Rebel General. Colonel Schaffer, chief of staff to Gen. Butler, and Gen. Ould, rebel commissioner of exchange, are the best of friends; and in their 'official' interviews pleasant and agreeable to each other. A couple wof weeks ago they were chatting at City Point over matters and things in general, when Colonel Schaffer picked up a map wbofeVirginia, and glancing at it casually, "it occurred to him that there was a good site for a very large city in the neighborshood of City Point, and expressed his as-""tonishment that it had been overlooked so long. Said he, with great seriousness: "If I had the capital I would invest it sorright here. It's bound to be a big city some day or onother." Ould kept his eyes on the map for a while and then, looking at Schaffer, re-

Fmarked, hardly able to suppress a smile that was trying to force its way out: "It seems to me, colonel, that instead of building a new city, you had better take one already built!"

"Sam," said the Union colonei to his seservant, "get that black bottle out of my basket;" and the rebel joke was washed down with old rye.

A Fu Remarks by Josh Billings. Moral swaseuns consist in asking a man to do what he ought to do without asking, and then begging his pardon if he refuses to do it.

I have finally kum to the konklusion that a good reliable set ov bowels is worth more tu a man than any quantity or branes. Music hath charms in sooth a savage;

this may be so, but I wud rather tri a revolver on him fust. It always seemed tu me that a left hand-te bed fidler must play the tune backwards. I have often been told that the best wa is tu take a bull by the horns, but I think in many instances I should prefer the tale holt. 3

Tha tell me that femails a scarce in the far western kentuky, that a great many married wimmen are already engaged to there secund and thurd hus bands.

A lady who has just opened a boarding house in a neighboring town has posted up the following "rules and, regulations :"

"The gentlemen must not put their feet upon the mantle in the winter, nor out of the window in the summer; and no lady must write her name on the window-light with a quartz pin. If she uses an air tight she must regulate the damper herself, and not call every ten minutes for a chambermaid. The single gentlemen must not play the trombone, nor make love to the servants, nor comb their whiskers at the table. If he does, he wont answer. No lady must turn up her nose at anything on the table, unless she has a natural pug, and none of the party must drink with a mouth full of victuals, nor must they fight for the top buckwheat cake. Terms liberal. Board

"to be paid-in advance." woining is cheap that you do not want." Se Yet many people are frequently insane on the subject of huying things cheap -----"Do tell me why you have bought that cast off door plate ?" asked the husband of one of these notable bargainers .--"Dear me," replied the wife, "you know it is always my plan to lay up things a. gainst a time of need.
