A young man who was paying special attention to a young lady, met with the following incident during one of his visits.

Being invited into the parlor to await the lady's appearance, he entertained himself the best he might for some time, and was becoming very weary, when a little girl about five years old slipped in and began a conversation with him.

you are coming to our house." "You can !" he replied ; "and how do you tell it !" "Why, when you are going to be here sister begins to sing and to get good; and she gives me cake, and pie, and anything I want; and she sings so sweetlywhen I speak to her she smiles so pleasant. ly, I wish you would stay here all the while; then I would have a good time.-But when you go off sister is not good .-She gets mad, and if I ask her for anything, she slaps and bangs me about, and is as ill as an abolitionist."

This was a poser to the young man. "Fools and children tell the truth," quoth he; and taking his hat he left and returned no more.

PUNCTUALITY.-When Hamilton was Washington's Secretary he was ordered to meet the Commander-in-Chief one morning at sunrise. Washington was first on the spot, and waited five minutes LEBANON VALLEY INSTITUTE. before Hamilton appeared. The Secretary apologized by saying that "something was the matter with his watch."-Another appointment was made for the next morning which was similarly broken. Hamilton again covered his negligence with a complaint against his watch, to which the punctual soldier replied. "Then, Sir, you must either get a new watch or I must get a new Secretary." On one occasion the first Emperor Napoleon invited his staff of the Marshals of France to take dinner with him at 1 o'clock. The Emperor at the moment the clock strack sat down to the table alone. He was a quick eater, seldom appearing at the table more than ten minutes. At the end of this time his staff appeared .-He arose to meet them and said:

"Messeurs, it is now past dinner, and we will immediately proceed to business; whereupon the Marshals were obliged to spend the whole afternoon in planning a new campaign on empty stomachs.
