THE CORNER.

A SUBSTITUTE BROKER SOLD.—The employees and habitues of the Provost Marshal's office, says the Troy Whig, were considerably amused a day or two since at the manner in which a substitute broker was victimized by his intended victim. Broker became acquainted with a countryman who has some notion about enlistment. "Oh, you're my man—I can pocket $200 or $300 on you," muttered the joyous broker, at the same time inviting Greeny to "take a walk and see the town." Greeny accepted, and off the two started. They imbibed freely, in fact, very freely. Broker was anxious to have Greeny drink often, while he was trying to keep sober. Broker had plenty of money and would not perint "his friend from the country" to spend a dime. Finally, Broker became weak in the knees, while Greeny was growing sober. Result: Greeny marched Mr. Broker to the marshal's office, had him examined, was accepted and sworn in as a sub-Greeny drink often, while he was was accepted and sworn in as a sub-stitute! Greeny pocketed the profits, The Stabling and Shedding, and started for the country. Mr. Broker is now on Hart's Island, in company with several of his victims. Verdict-served him right.

A MADMAN. Quite a commotion was created in the office of Colonel 1864 NEW STYLES. 1864 A DAM RIBE, in Cumberland Street, between A Market and the Court House, north side, has now on hand a splendid assortment of the New Style of HATS AND GAPS, for men and boys, for 1858 to which the attention of the public is respectfully inv, ted. Rats of all prices, from the chaquest to the most costly, sivays on hand. He has also just opened a splendid assortment of SUMMER HATS, embracing such a STRAW, PANAMA, PEDAL, PEARL, HORN, LEG HORN, SENATE, CUBLAN, and all others.

Woolley, in Baltimore on Monday, caused by a soldier named Johnson, a member of the first Regiment Connecticut cavalry. It appears that about one year ago, while at Fairfax Court House, he was bitten by a dog suffering from hydrophobia, but by skilful treatment he was in a few Dissolution of Fartnership.

THE Firm of J. HEDRICH & CO, was disolved and expired on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1864. The Books are in the hands of W. A. Iledrich for settlement at the old stand. All those having claims against said firm will present them, and those indebted will please make payment. The Business will be carried on at the same place by GOOD & HEDRICH. Acknowledging the liberal patronage h metafore bestowed upon the late firm, they would respectfully solicit a continuance. weeks thought cured. Yesterday Johnson was arrested by a guard on the street, charged with being drunk. He was taken to the military headquarters, and while in a room occupied by the clerks he began foaming at the mouth, and uttered sounds retembling the barking of a dog. The clerks and several officers, who vacated the place, and succeeded in lock ing the madman in the room. His paroxysms were frightful to behold, and it was with great difficulty that he could be secured. After being bound, he was removed to the Camden street Hospital, where he was again seized with a fit. During his struggles, a sergeant of the guard was bit on the small finger of the left hand by Johnson, and to prevent serious consequences the finger was immediately amputated by the surgeon in attendance at the hospital.

NOTHING LIKE A GOOD TRADE. Provost Marshal General Fry has issued a circular to the effect that skill. ed mechanics and operatives employed in the arsenals and navy yards of the United States, who shall be drafted and on examination be held to service, will not be required to report for duty under such draft so long as they remain in the aforesaid service, provided the officer in charge shall certify that their labor as mechanics or operatives is necessary for the naval'or military service.

has issued an important order placing the border counties of that State, from Monroe to the line of Vermont, under the military command of General Green, in case there should be any demonstration made by "refugees" or others on the Canadian frontier.

ANOTHER romance of the war that has commenced going the rounds, is that of a rebel officer who was blown up by the explosion of the mine at Petersburg two hundred feet in the air, and came down alive and uninjured | The reader is expected to be nearly as breatbless with surprise at this story as the rebel was when he came down.

Artemus Ward writes to us that he is tired of answering the question as to how many wives Brigham Young has. He says that all he knows a bout it is that he one day used up the multiplication table in counting the long stockings on a clothes-line in Brigham's back yard, and went off feeling dizzy.
