THE CORNER.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

McClellan, the hope of the Nation,
The choice of the brave and the free,
We join in a heartfelt ovation,
And all offer honors to thee.
Our voices are joined in communion,
We remember the soldier &c true,
Who fought for the glorious old Union,
And stood by the Red White and Blue.

No factious dissentions shall sever
The bands which our Washington wrought;
The Union, unchanging forever,
Is shrined in each patriot's thought.
Our love and our faith are not hollow;
In strength they were nourished and grew;
The Chief we have chosen we'll follow,
And stand by the Red, White and Blue.

When war waged its wide desolation,
And threatened our land to deform,
McClellan the pride of the nation,
Bore our flag through battle and storm.
His heart beats with freedom's emotion,
He is ever most steadfast and true,
He swears to the Union devotion,
And stands by the Red, White and Blue.

Our songs then unite in communion;
The stars of our flag are above;
Hurrah for McClellan and Union;
Hurrah for the man we love.
The old Union ship shall be guided
By him who o'er staunch and true,
And he, through the States, undivided,
Will sail her in Red, White and Blue.

LINCOLN'S PROMISES.

The people of Lebanon county will bear in mind that Abraham Lincoln has never yet kept a promise he has made to the people.—He promised us an economical government. Instead of that we have had thieving, speculating and defalcation. John P. Hale said in a speech in the Senate that the "government was in more danger from the corruption of Lincoln's office-holders than from the rebels in arms." Mr. Van Wyck, a republican member of Congress, said in a speech that "the mania for stealing runs through every Department of the Government." Lincoln has spent more money since he has been President, in supporting his office-holders, than Buchanan spent to carry on the entire affairs of our Government. And the people are begged by Lincoln's lackies not to change, but to voto again for him and fasten four years more of his corrupting rule upon the people!

Wanted! For a Museum!

Wanted for a Museum:
1 Wide-Awake Uniform;
1 small Wigwam,
1 coal oil lamp;
Also—1 sixteen-starred banner—the one carried by the Republicans in the campaign of 1856.
Also—A photograph of the "Wide-Awake" who got 160 acres of land by the election of Lincoln.
Also—A photograph of any brawling preacher who has gone into the army as a private soldier.
Also—A photograph of the man who declared that the Wide-Awakes would "clean the South out before breakfast," and that the "rebellion would be starved out in three months."
Also—A photograph of that republican stumper who told that
"This draft will extinguish the rebellion."
"That after Curtin was elected there would be no draft."
"That greenbacks are as good as gold."
That this campaign is the last one!"
Also—A photograph of the deluded man who thinks the Republican party has kept the promises it made the people in the campaign of 1860.

A NEGRO SOLD AT AUCTION IN NEW YORK.—The Hudson Gazette relates an incident illustrating the "Lo! the poor negro" feeling in these Abolition times. The truth is vouched for by the above mentioned journal:

"On the first instant a colored woman living at Chatham Four Corners, New York, put up her son at auction at her house, as a substitute, and sold him to the highest bidder. The lad who was a good looking, robust darkey was started at $600 and ran up to $1000, at which sum he was knocked down to a lawyer of that village."

Well may a contemporary ask, "Where is Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who has wept rivers of Crocodile tears over Southern slave auctions?"

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE AS IT NOW IS.

The relative strength of the several States in the Electoral College has been considerably changed since the last Presidential election by the decennial reapportionment. Maine had 8 votes in 1860, and in 1864 will have but 7. Massachusetts also loses one, falling from 13 to 12 votes; New York drops from 35 to 33, Pennsylvania loses one, Ohio loses two, and Kentucky loses one. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, and Virginia will not be heard of in the Electoral College. The vote of California will be increased from 4 to 2 votes; Illinois will advance from 11 to 16 votes; Iowa, which had 4 votes in 1860, will now have 8; Wisconsin will have 8 votes instead of 5; Michigan increases two votes, and Kansas, with her three votes, will be added to the college. The following is an accurate statement of the number to which each State likely to participate in the election will be entitled:

Maine	7	Ohio	12
New Hampshire	5	Indiana	13
Massachusetts	12	Illinois	16
Rhode Island	4	Michigan	8
Connecticut	6	Vermont	5
New York	33	Iowa	8
Wisconsin	8	Minesota	4
New Jersey	7	Kansas	3
Pennsylvania	26	Kentucky	11
Delaware	3	Missouri	11
Maryland	7	California	5
Oregon	3
		Total	226

The total number of votes to which these are entitled is 226. A majority of this Electoral College is necessary to an election, and that majority is one hundred and fourteen votes.

"SWAPPING HORSES!"

The disposition among the people "to swap horses" this fall is surprising. The "Old Draft Horse" now in the Presidential harness will be sent out to grass. The people are tired of the wind-galled broken-down old political hack, and want a fresh and vigorous lead horse. They'll put "Little Mac" at the head of the team!

Friends and Relatives OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS & SAILORS

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, AND OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should see that they are supplied with these GREAT REMEDIES, and where the brave Soldier and Sailor have wounds to provide themselves will them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS.

Will be speedily cured and effectually cured by using these almost miraculous medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHE AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so saddened the unsalted fare, trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or living and drinking whatever is unwholesome, that disordering the functional action of the liver and stomach. The poisons must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux; many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach, and third purge all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so surely as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH!

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. Ulceration in the throat in manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system, and leave the patient's vigorous and healthy. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only supply himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his Knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 5 or 8 Pills to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK and LONDON," are discernible as a Water Mark in every leaf of the book of directions. The same words are blown in the glass of every Pot and Box. A considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

 Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
