HURAH FOR LITTLE MAC.

MIR.-"CARRY ME BACK TO OLD VIRGINIA." Fling out, fling out, with song and shout Our banner to the breeze, The same old flag, the stars and stripes, That floats o're lend and seas.

Chorus.—Rurrah, hurrah, for gallant Mac, We'll give him three cheers more, And carry him up to the Old White Moase, By fair Potomac's shore.

And with our standard bearers' names Upon each fleecy fold,
The brave, the just, the good and true
Who ne'er were bought or sold.
Chorus.—Hurrab, hurrah, &c.

We know no North, we know no South, We know no East or West, But go for the whole United States, The land we love the best. CHORUS.—Hurrab, hurrah, &c.

Then down with the abolition crew, Who'd let the Union slide, And rally round our gallant Mac, The noble true and tried. CHORUS. -- Hurrab, horrab, &c.

The Keystone goes for Little Mac And her loyal sisters too; And the Lincoln men turn pale with fear, When they bear the shouts for Mac. CHORUS. - Hurrah, burrah, &c.

For that gallant shout is ringing out, Throughout this glorious land, Wherever there bents a freeman's heart, For his wheele—his pation's land. Cuorus.—Harrah, hurrah, &c.

Two Significant Facts.—It is fact, as we confess, that General Mc-Clellan in his letter of acceptance does not name slavery or the negro. This is one fact.

Some of the abolitionists say it is significant. We do not deny that it is significant. On the contrary, we affirm that it is. It is very significant. What its significance is we will state, when we pointed out another fact.

BARNUM was negotiating some time back with the Leaguer "who meant to go to the war," and the ·Leaguer ' who didn't want an office," to exhibit at his Museum, for a short period, at a high salary. After the contract was sealed, an unexpected circumstance rendered the sevices of these gentlemen unavailable. The first "backed out" when ordered to the front, and the second got a birth in the Internal Revenue office. Bar-
