Reference — Two very cestructive fires occurred in South Annylle township, on Friday evening of last week—One of them broke out about 6 o'clock, which destroyed the large and handsome barn of Hon. John W. Killinger, (formerly Peter Bachman's) Everything was destroyed in the building, including 16 head of cattle and 3 horses. The greater part of the stock belonged to the lenant, Henry Fosnacht, and was uninsured.—The buildings, we are informed were partly insured. The loss is very heavy.

About an hour after the above fire, about a mile from the above, was also in flames, and entirely destroyed, together about a mile from the above, was also in flames, and entirely destroyed, together with its contents, and 21 head of cattle and shorses. This tarn also was one of the finest in the township. We understand that it is partially insured in the Sinking Springs Company. There is no doubt that both fires were caused by an incendiary, and we are pleased to learn that there are some rumors afloat that the guilty person is suspected. If so, and if it can be clearly fastened upon him. if it can be clearly fastened upon him, there should be an example made. That section of country has been too long afflicted with some fiend in man's shape, applying the torch to his neighbor's prop-nesday evening last, Mr. James McDermott, for many years a miner at Cornwall, but lately working in a coal mine, near Shenandoah city, Schuylkill county, was instantly killed, by a lump of coal falling on his head. Mr. McDermott was well known in this county, and was highly respected by all who had his acquaintance.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, two young men from Shoeneck. Lancaster county, met with severe injuries in the neighborhood of Cornwall, by their horse taking fright, running off, and upsetting the carriage in which they were traveling. Both men are still lying at Mr. William Youtz's in a critical condition.

Stine and Ross are still paying $16 tor Rye Straw, $15 for Wheat, $10 or Oats, and $8 for Corn fodder.

THE Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that sub scriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from Aug. 15th, 1864, with semiannual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenth per cent. per annum,-principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100-$500. $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must b for fifty dollars or some mn tiple of fifty dollars. The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be pre-
